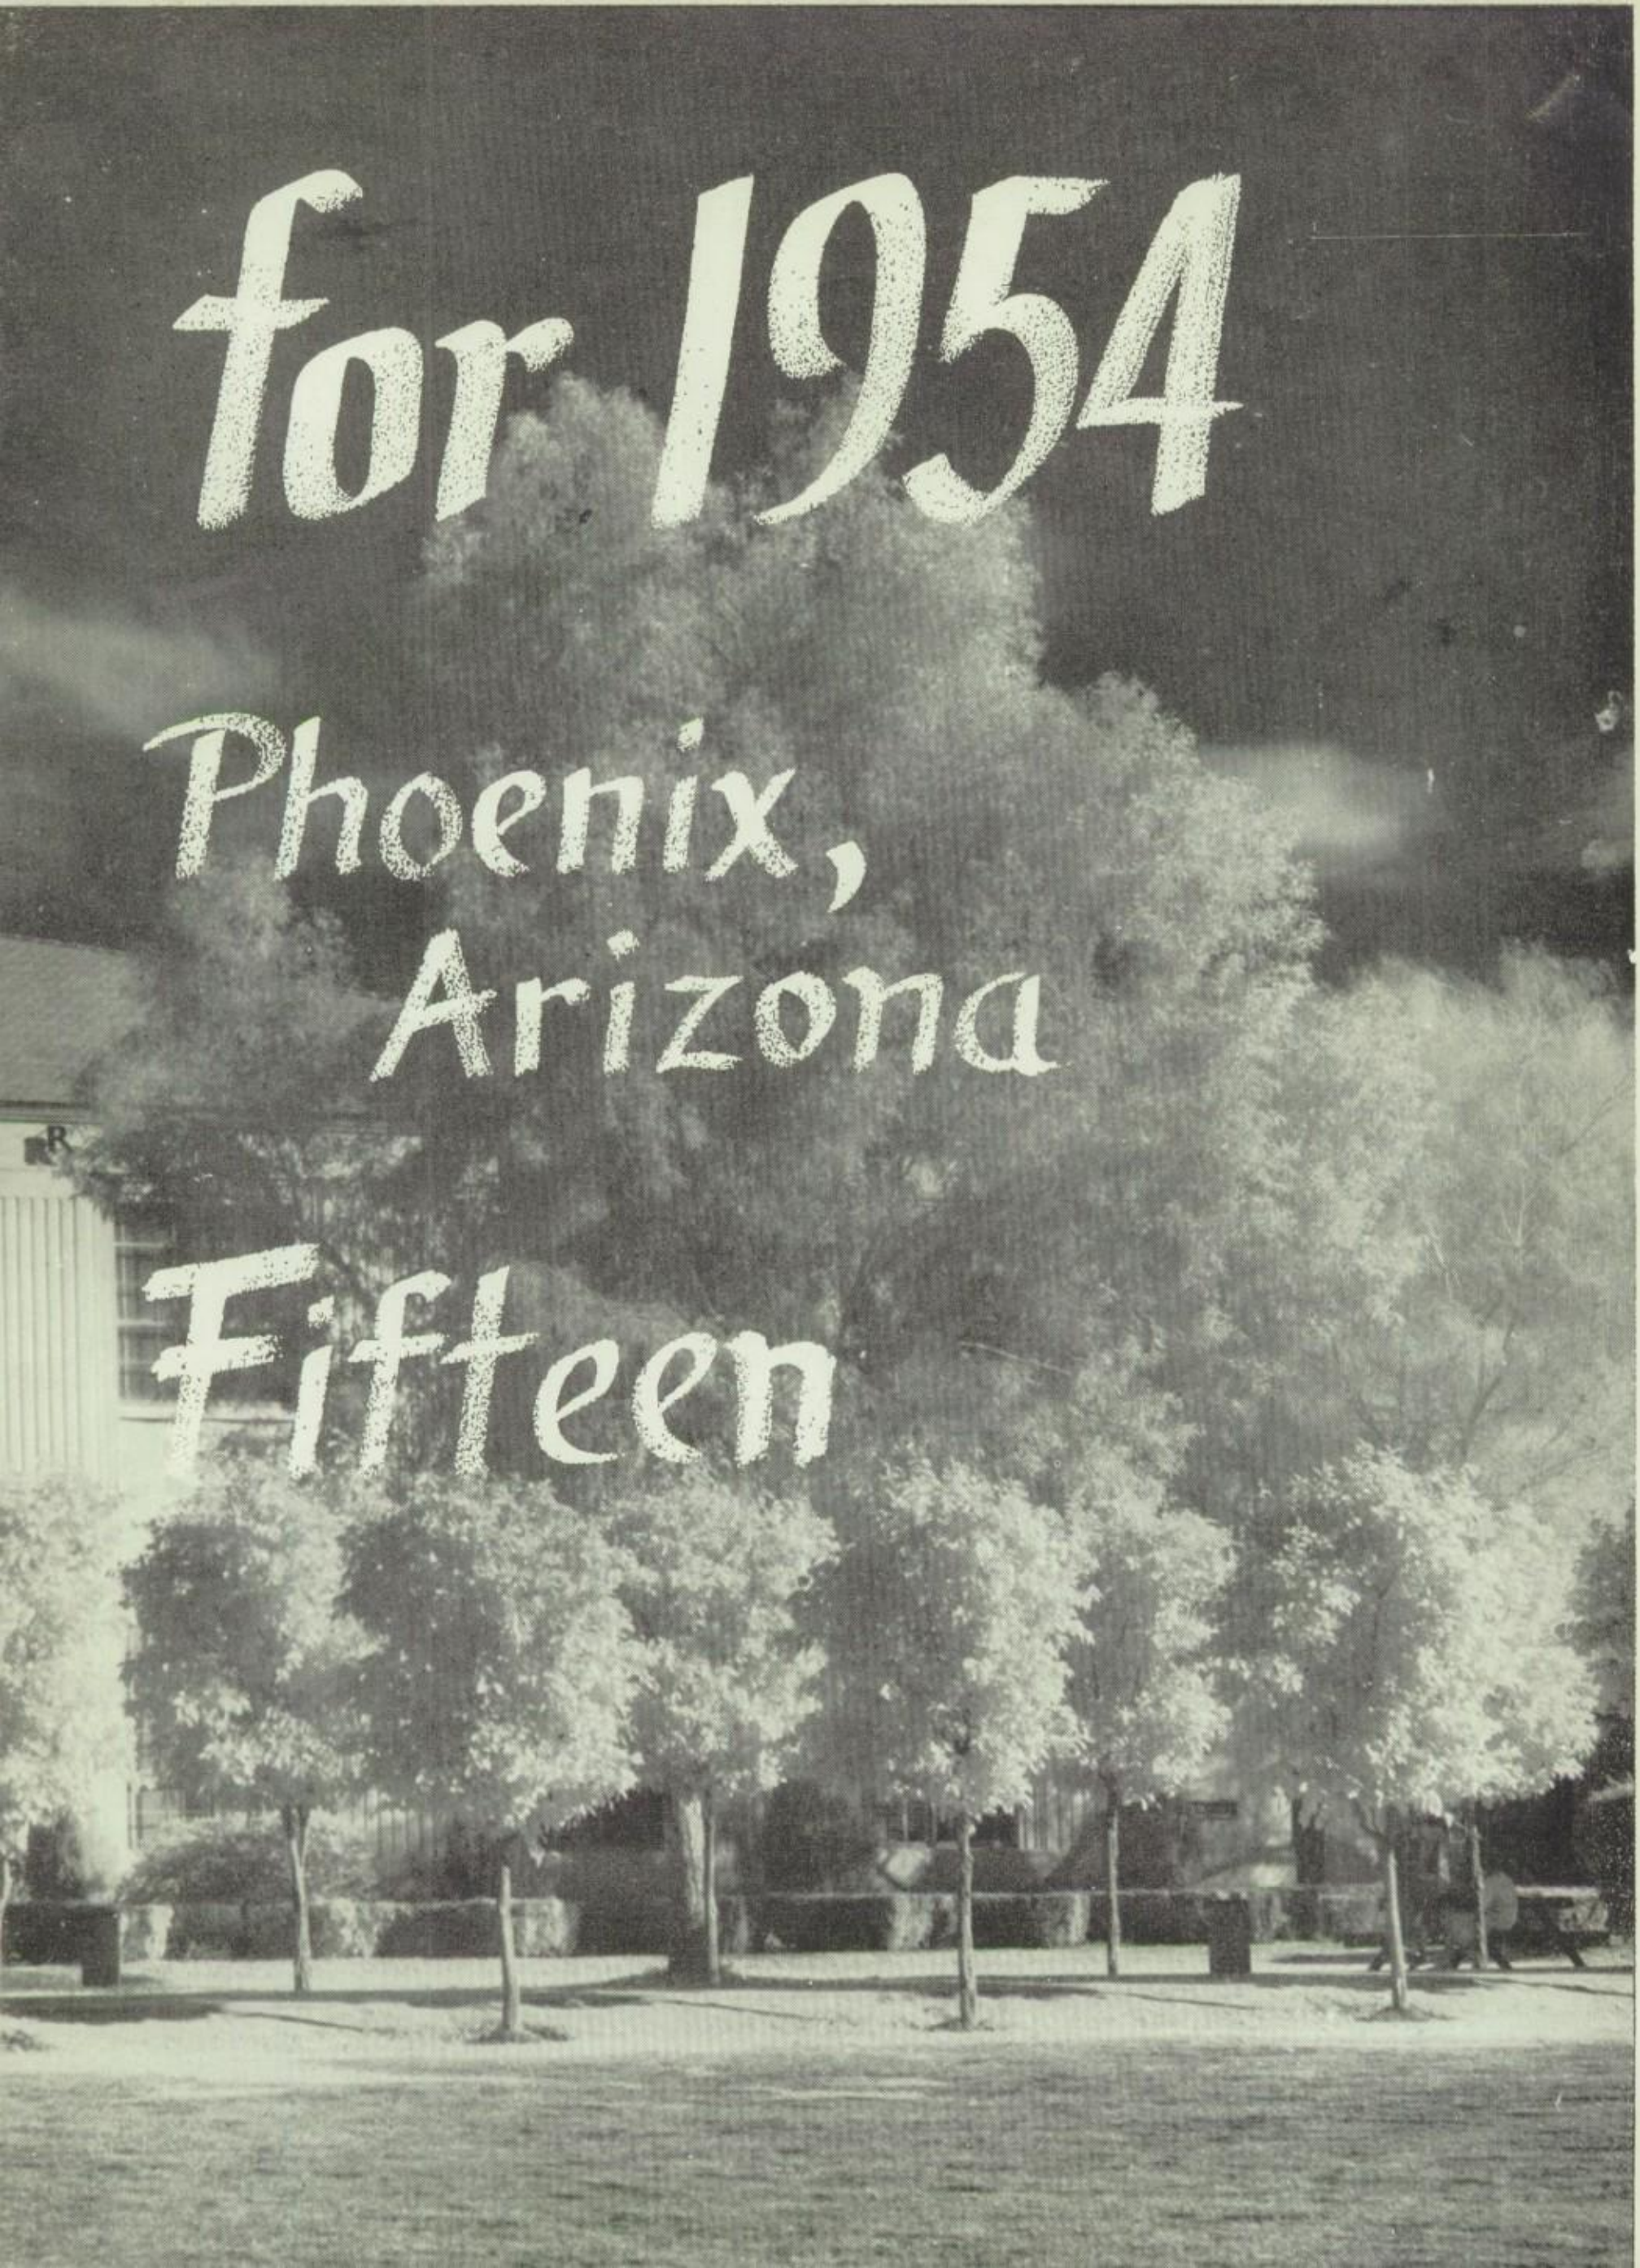
ROADBEATS

Hoofbeats

North Phoenix High School

Volume



for 1954
Phoenix,
Arizona
Fifteen

North Limited

Activities at North High were limited this year in that campus facilities were shared with Camelback High School. By the practice of intelligent and cheerful cooperation, difficulties were overcome and the Hoofbeats staff feels that neither school suffered in efficiency and school spirit.

With this in mind, the fifteenth annual Hoofbeats, portraying the North High Limited forging ahead, is dedicated to the students, faculty members, and administrators of both schools whose patience and ingenuity produced a successful year in all phases of school life in the face of sometimes annoying obstructions.

Varied Talent . .

One of the best and varied assembly programs given this year at North High was the Junior-Senior Talent Assembly. The many acts included were a vocal number, record pantomime, violin solo, dance routines, and a first class German band.

In early March the annual Girls' League Fashion Show was presented and the spring outfits modeled this year seemed to excel all other years. Examples of these are shown in the upper right picture. Applause greeted every outfit.

. . In Assemblies

Numbers that were presented to the North High students in the Junior-Senior Talent Assembly also were taken to other schools and presented as our exchange assembly.

A dance presented by the senior pom-pon girls was the unusual Subi. This was one of the outstanding acts of the show.

Outfits in the fashion show varied from bathing suits to formals. Sue Sizemore of the Sizemore Modeling School narrated the program and the clothes and accessories were from Korricks.

FOOTBALL QUEEN . . . Lovely Miss Dot Fox was chosen by popular acclaim of the football team to reign as their queen for the 1953-54 season.

May Day, Play Day . . . North High students insured a successful event when they chose charming Miss Evonne Jones as their 1953 queen for the May Day, Play Day celebration at Encanto Park.

North's Royalty

SALAD BOWL PRINCESS . . . The New Year was heralded off to a roaring start when Miss Nancy Mayrath was chosen to represent our school in the annual Salad Bowl festiivties held the first of every January, proving that North High is tops not only in honor and talent, but also in beauty.

Drama . . .

The North High Players under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Duncan presented December audiences with a magnificent performance of "Annie Get Your Gun."

Heading the splendid cast were Sue Roush as Annie Oakley, and Jack Brokaw in the role of Frank Butler.

The play, a musical comedy, unfolded the story of the backwoods hillbilly who began her career as a showgirl by outshooting the rifle champion of the West, toured Europe with her troupe, and returned realizing that she couldn't get her man with a gun.

The modern dance class under the direction of Mrs. Bettse Phelps and the North High orchestra conducted by Mr. Lynn Fitzgerald rendered excellent interpretations of such favorites as "Doin' What Comes Natur'lly," "I'm An Indian Too," and "Show Business." Costumes from Hollywood lent an authentic note to the staging, which was directed by students Pat Crockett, Stephanie Eldridge, Kay Knight, Mary Lynne Mohn, Sally Sherrill, and Beth Willis. Student musical director was Barbara Chernos.

Other members of the cast included Harry Brandise, Tony Collins, Phil Hunter, Jack Loring, Jerry Palmer, Rae Schafer, and Sue Stewart.

Maternal Instinct . . . Kent Casady and Ben Hayward help Sandra and Sharon Cooper find their way about our beautiful campus. It was the first day of school for the freshman twins.

North Travels, Dances,

REHEARSAL . . . An outstanding spring production of William Shakespeare's, The Taming of the Shrew, was given on the stage of our auditorium by the North High Players under the direction of Mr. J. D. Filson. Above are the principals, Eldon Quick in the role of Petruchio, Beth Willis as Katherine, and Mr. Filson, director. Other players included in the cast were Jack Brokaw, Tony Collins, Phil Hunter, Nancy Mayrath, and Don Shire.

Play In Practice

LADIES NEXT . . . Jo Jackson, Von Jackson, Jan Jackson, Kathy Jones, and Charlotte Bennett indulge in a moment of refreshment.

Social Soda

Beauty . .

Offering a sneak preview of spring fashions, twenty-four l o v e l y North High High coeds modeled a wardrobe designed to fill every occasion at the style show held last February.

. . and Brawn

North High excels in athletics, as proved by the numerous awards won by members of the student body.

During the year the spotlight shifted to the All-Girls Assembly featuring excellent talent for an all-girl audience by an all-girl cast.

Yuletide

Christmas, a joyous season for the young and old alike, came with special enthusiasm to North High this year. Students everywhere bustled with good cheer and cries of "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year." Faces reflected the true meaning of Christmas and what it meant to be a Christian in a democracy where one has the actual right to practice the good will felt towards one's fellowman.

Two fir trees haloed in multicolors, a snowman, children, and Santa Claus —these are the things we all will remember as Christmas 1953 at our alma mater.

Vitality

During this year there was much evidence of invaluable service to our school. The pom-pon girls entertained at football games ,assemblies, and parades. Committees and individuals contributed service that added additional enjoyment to school activities and was greatly appreciated by the student body as a whole.

TYPING . . . Miss Ruth White's typing class picks, pecks, and prepares for the business world of the future.

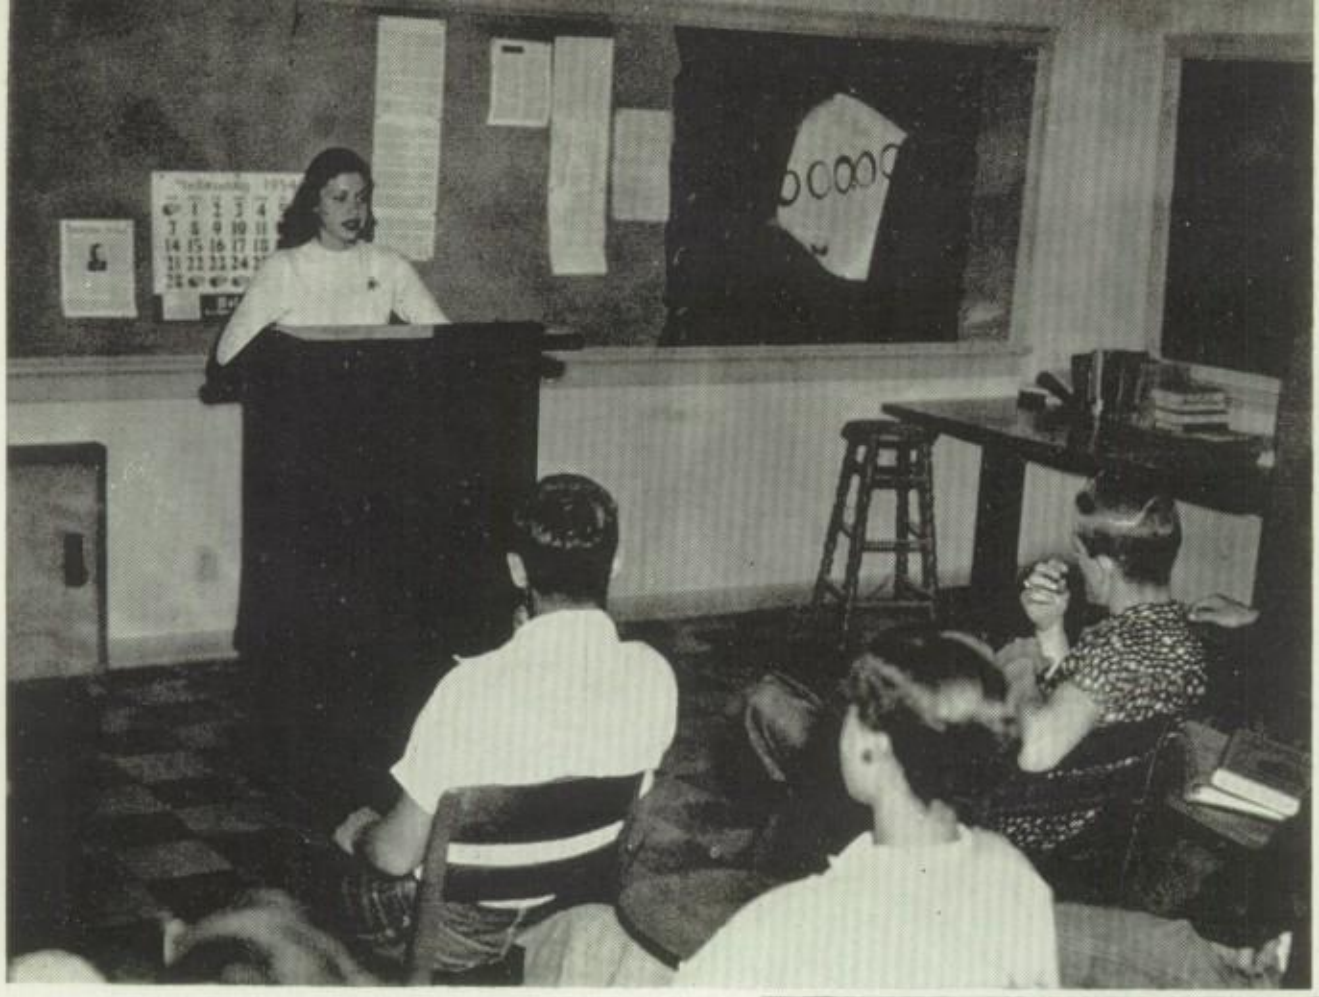
Letters And Books



DEMOSTHENES . . . In Mr. Harvey's first-hour class, Sue Friend practices her hand at charming fellow students with her oratorical perfection.

MUSICAL COMEDY . . . A stage crew formed by students from various drama classes prepare the props for a scene in "Annie Get Your Gun."

Show Business . . .

Students planning a career in show-business gain a foundation for the future through the public speaking and drama classes of North High.

BALLERINAS . . . Students in Mrs. Phelps modern dance class leap for the sheer joy of dancing.

. . Combines Many Talents

Through the perfection of practice, these students of music promise to be the true artists of tomorrow.

Behind The Wheel

MECHANICAL . . . Above and Below: Industry centers around the science of mathematics. An important phase of this science is mechanical drawing, here are trained the architects and engineers of tomorrow, who will design the machinery responsible for making the wheels of tomorrow's world go around.

A Future—Engineering

INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD . . . Our foreign language classes do much to promote understanding among nations and the appreciation of modern and ancient cultures. Here students of Miss Isabel Howatt's Spanish class pantomine the traditions of Latin America.

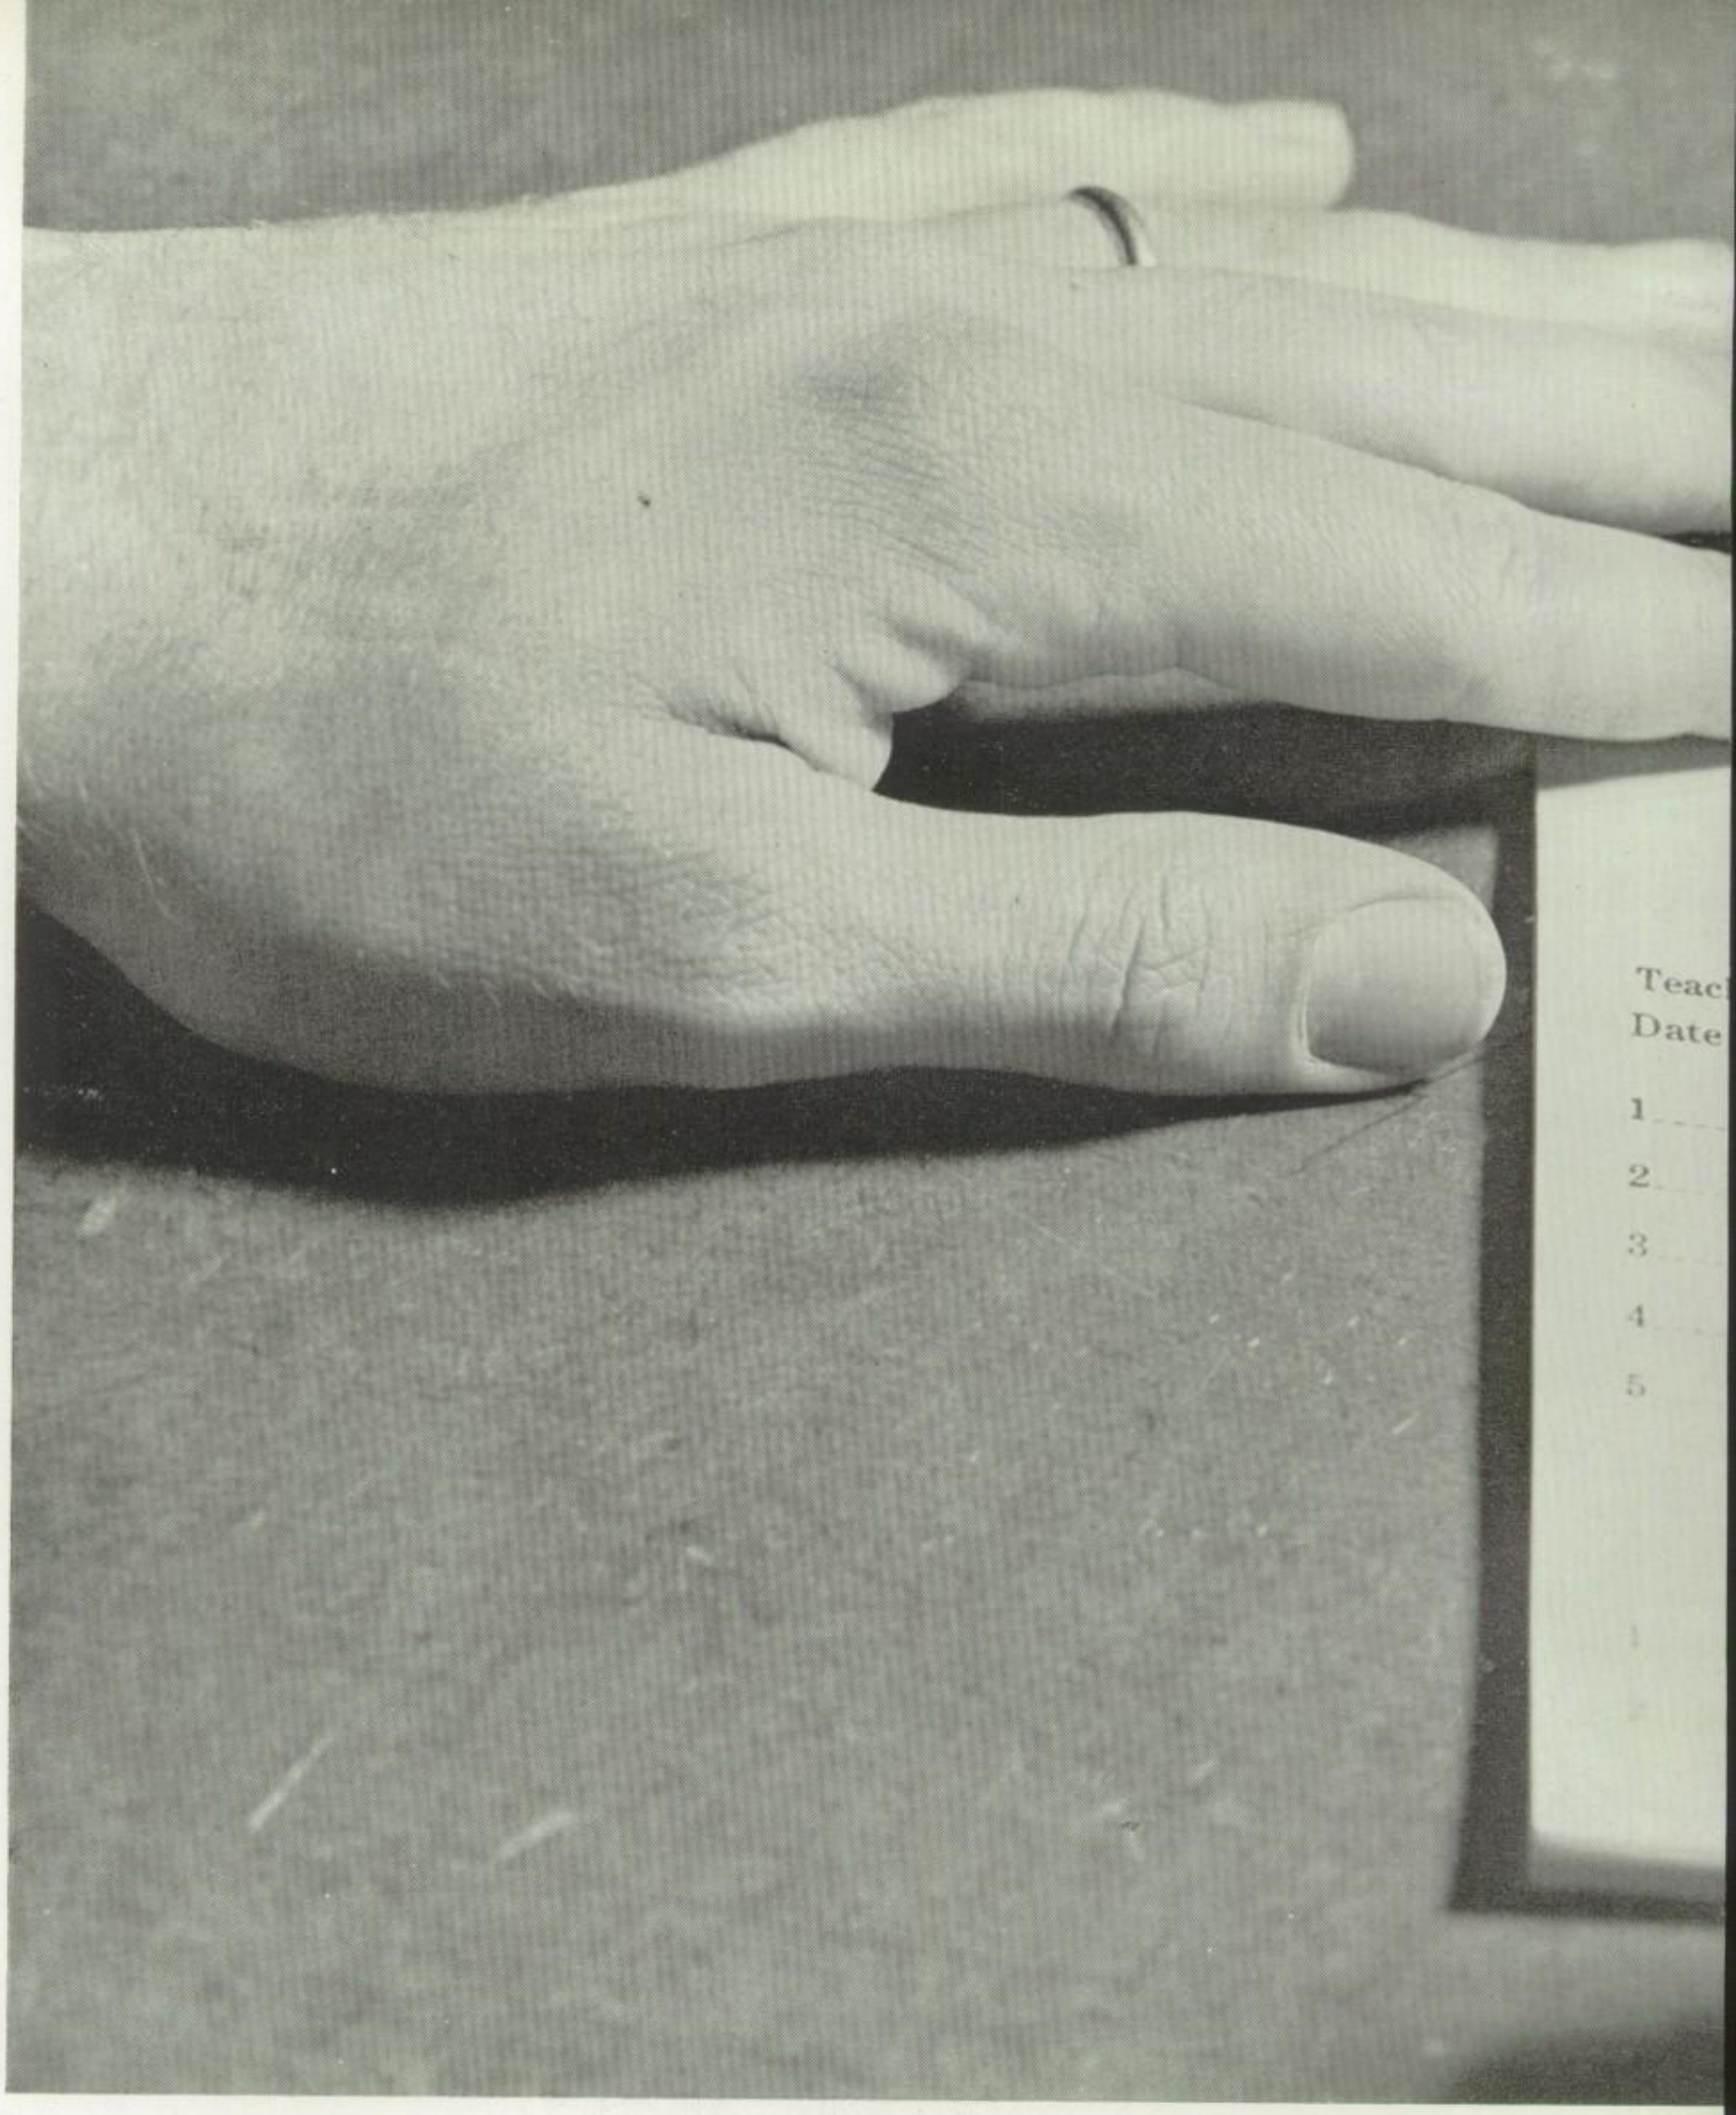
Everyone Participating

CRAFTSMEN . . . The fine arts and language departments provided by North High's schedule of courses give willing and industrious students not only an appreciation of the culture of their chosen source of study but also offer them many fine technical pointers that will enable the pupils to complete a well-rounded and workable education. In the picture at the left Louise Layton, Martha Moses, and Nancy Hill construct leather belts in Miss Williams fifth-hour crafts class.

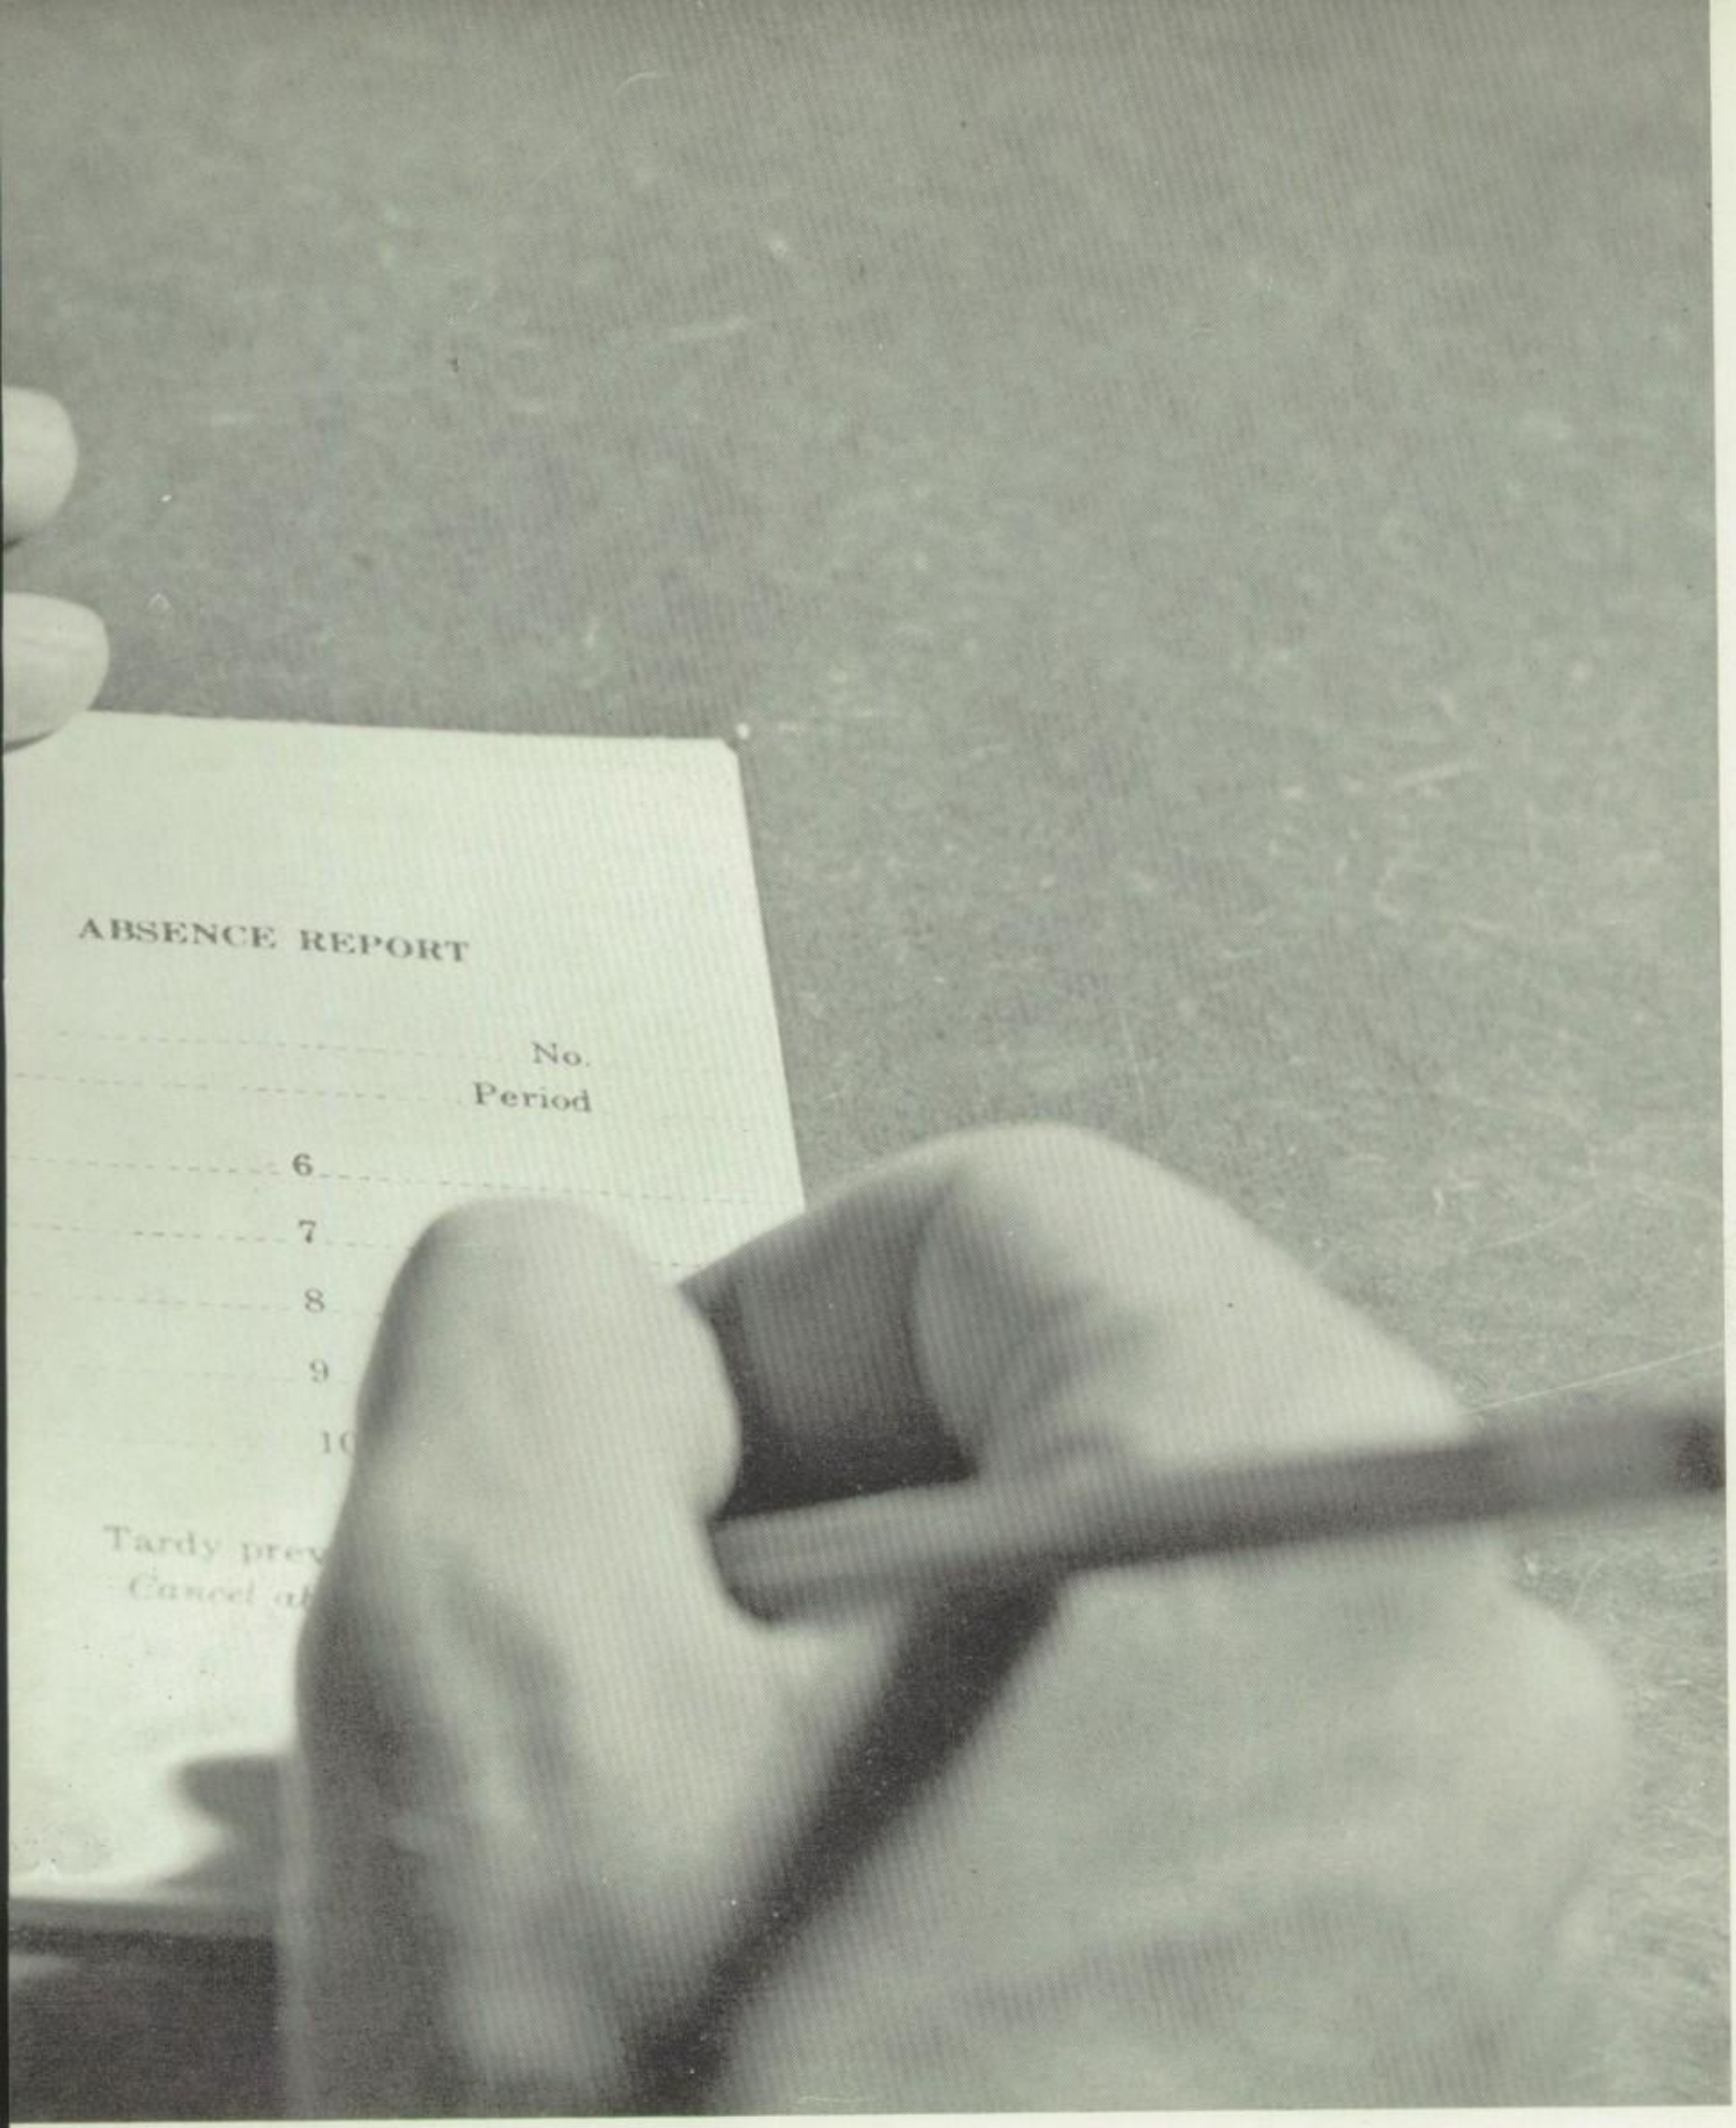
CERAMICS . . . One of the most interesting of the art activities at North High is that of ceramics in which these people indulge during Mr. Dutton's second hour class.

Artists At Work

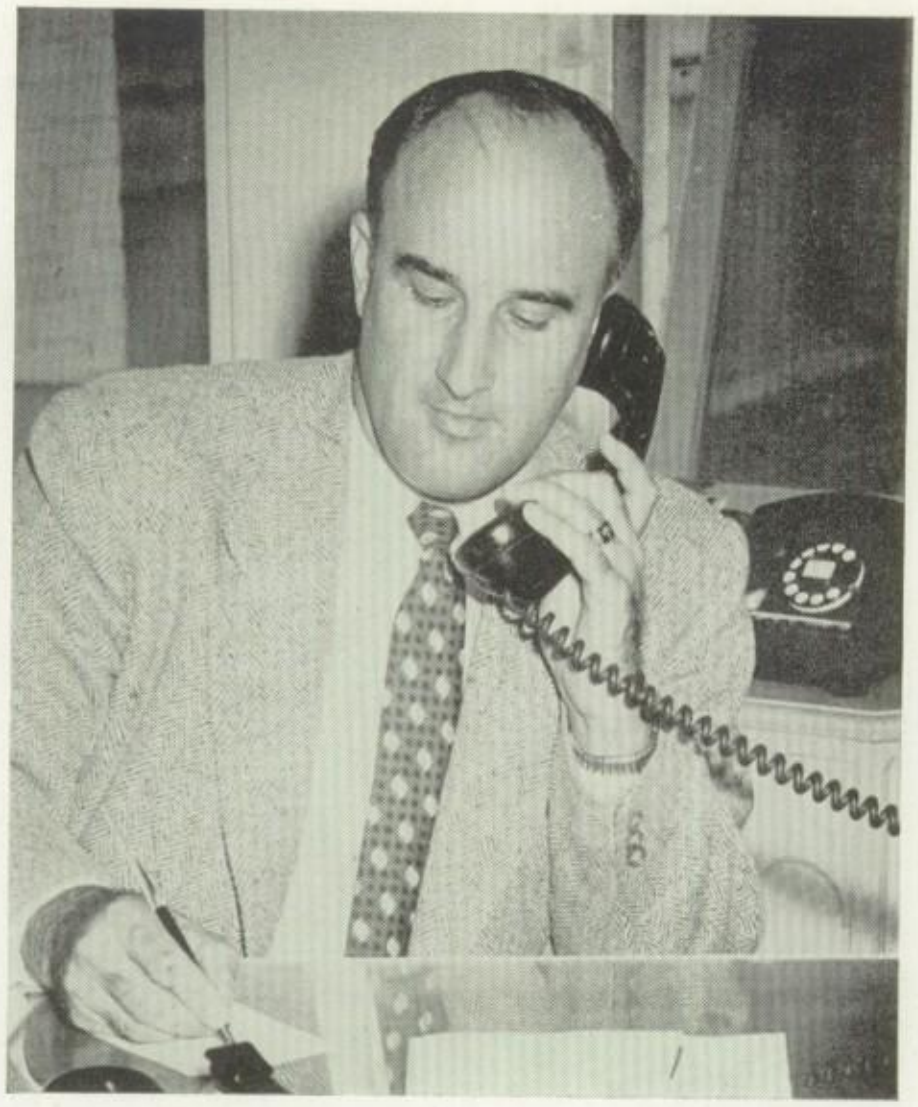
STENCILING . . . Stenciling is the basis to good art, for without it the advertising business, in which perfect lettering is so important, could not flourish as it does today.



Faculty And Administra



tion



SUPERINTENDENT . . . Dr. Harold L. Gear, a former principal at North High and past assistant superintendent of the Phoenix Union High Schools and Phoenix College District.

Where Important . . .

The Board of Education of the Phoenix Union High School System employs our superintendent and distributes authority. It determines the policies followed by the schools in the district. Its members are elected by the voters of the school district.

Dr. Harold Gear, superintendent, needs no introduction to the students at North High. As our superintendent he has assumed the responsibility of his office in a very becoming manner.

SCHOOL BOARD . . . Dr. Norman A. Ross, president, Mrs. F. A. Bons, Mr. Frank Haze Burch, Mr. Jay Hyde, and Dr. Trevor G. Browne serve on the very important School Board.

PRINCIPAL — Mr. Charles M. Burton, who at the beginning of the 1953-54 school year was acting-principal, was appointed in January to hold this office permanently.

. . . Authority Resides

In the fall of 1953 the registrar, Mr. Charles Burton, assumed the task of acting principal of North Phoenix High School in a manner so pleasing that he was elected to the position permanently by the School Board.

SCHOOL COUNCIL . . . Front Row: Mr. Flowers, Mrs. Rasbury, Mr. Burton, Miss Adams. Second Row: Mr. Stancik, Mr. Bartels, Mr. Hamm, Mr. Koerner, Mr. Fitzgerald, Mr. Schmidt.

Friends To All . . .

Mr. Flowers, the new registrar, is busy at all hours proving efficiency is the uppermost in his department.

The office of the deans at North Phoenix still has its steady flow of visitors.

. . . Pleasant Assistants

The secretaries in the respective offices attend to the various business details such as typing stencils, letters and reports. The switchboard keeps the staff in the pricipal's office constantly busy while registration, daily attendance records and transcripts occupy time elsewhere.

Lending A Hand

Many people are engaged in the occupations of serving the school. Whether their job is keeping the campus clean, feeding the many students and teachers, or repairing an intricate mechanism, we offer these people the thanks and appreciation they deserve for a job well done.

Serving Everyone

The cafeteria, the health center, and the bookstore provide three indispensible services here at North High. While the cafeteria daily feeds two-thousand students, the health center gives that headache a new lease on life, and the bookstore supply includes such necessities as books, paper, and pencils.

SERVICE . . . Below: Health secretary, Mrs. Juanita Landman. Right: Mrs. Fara Darland, Bookstore assistant, helps school accountant, Mr. Harold M. Moore.

PRESIDENT . . . Competent Mrs. Paul Burroway wielded the presidential gavel of the Parent-Teachers' Association, and, under her leadership, better understanding between the school and the home was achieved.

Parents And Teachers . .

One of the most enjoyable activities sponsored by the Parent-Teachers' Association is the open house. Beginning with a delicious dinner served in our cafeteria, the doors of the school are thrown open to parents.

Classes

Senior Class Leaders

Now on the top rung of the ladder, the members of the class of '54 look ahead to new horizons, and make plans for their future. Their strength and courage are manifested in their decision to break away from tradition to wear caps and gowns for graduation in spite of the hot weathers so prevalent in Phoenix in June.

Symbolic of the graduating class are the panoramic picture, announcements, calling cards, senior class rings and the farewell assembly.

Festivity reigned at the Senior Hop, which was held at Paradise Inn early in May with every one in semi-formal dress. It proved to be a gay affair.

Efficient Juniors

This year's junior class certainly knew how to reach maximum efficiency. During second semester, door prizes were offered at the junior council meetings. The effect was tremendous!

In their projects they showed the same ingenuity. For Sadie Hawkin's Day they provided a greased pig race. "The Wrecker" was also a new contribution.

Talent on the stage possessed by many juniors added to the sparkle of the Junior-Senior talent assembly this last winter.

Now that this year has ended, the junior class is in the midst of "taking over". Bill Craig, junior class president, will become student body president. If he leads his school as well as he has his class, he'll deserve much praise.

Top Sophomore Citizens

Upper classmen! The class of '56 has reached its goal at last. They are "big men" on campus now, and have well earned this title.

Winter Wonderland, their semi-formal dance proved very fruitful for the class budget. It was held in the cafeteria amid snow and icy atmosphere.

Its members have t a k e n an active part in school affairs entering speech contests, participating in athletics and taking part in plays. The sophomores have kept the Biology Department busy with their questions concerning animal and plant life.

Chosen Cherubs

Starting off the year with a Freshman Mixer, the class of 1957 has shown a true freshman spirit, full of pep, vim and vigor. With awe-inspired interest in school life, they have progressed through the year to the status of sophomores. No campus would be complete without the freshmen to chide, to help, and to enjoy. They were the "Guinea Pigs" for the newly proposed counseling system at North Phoenix High School.

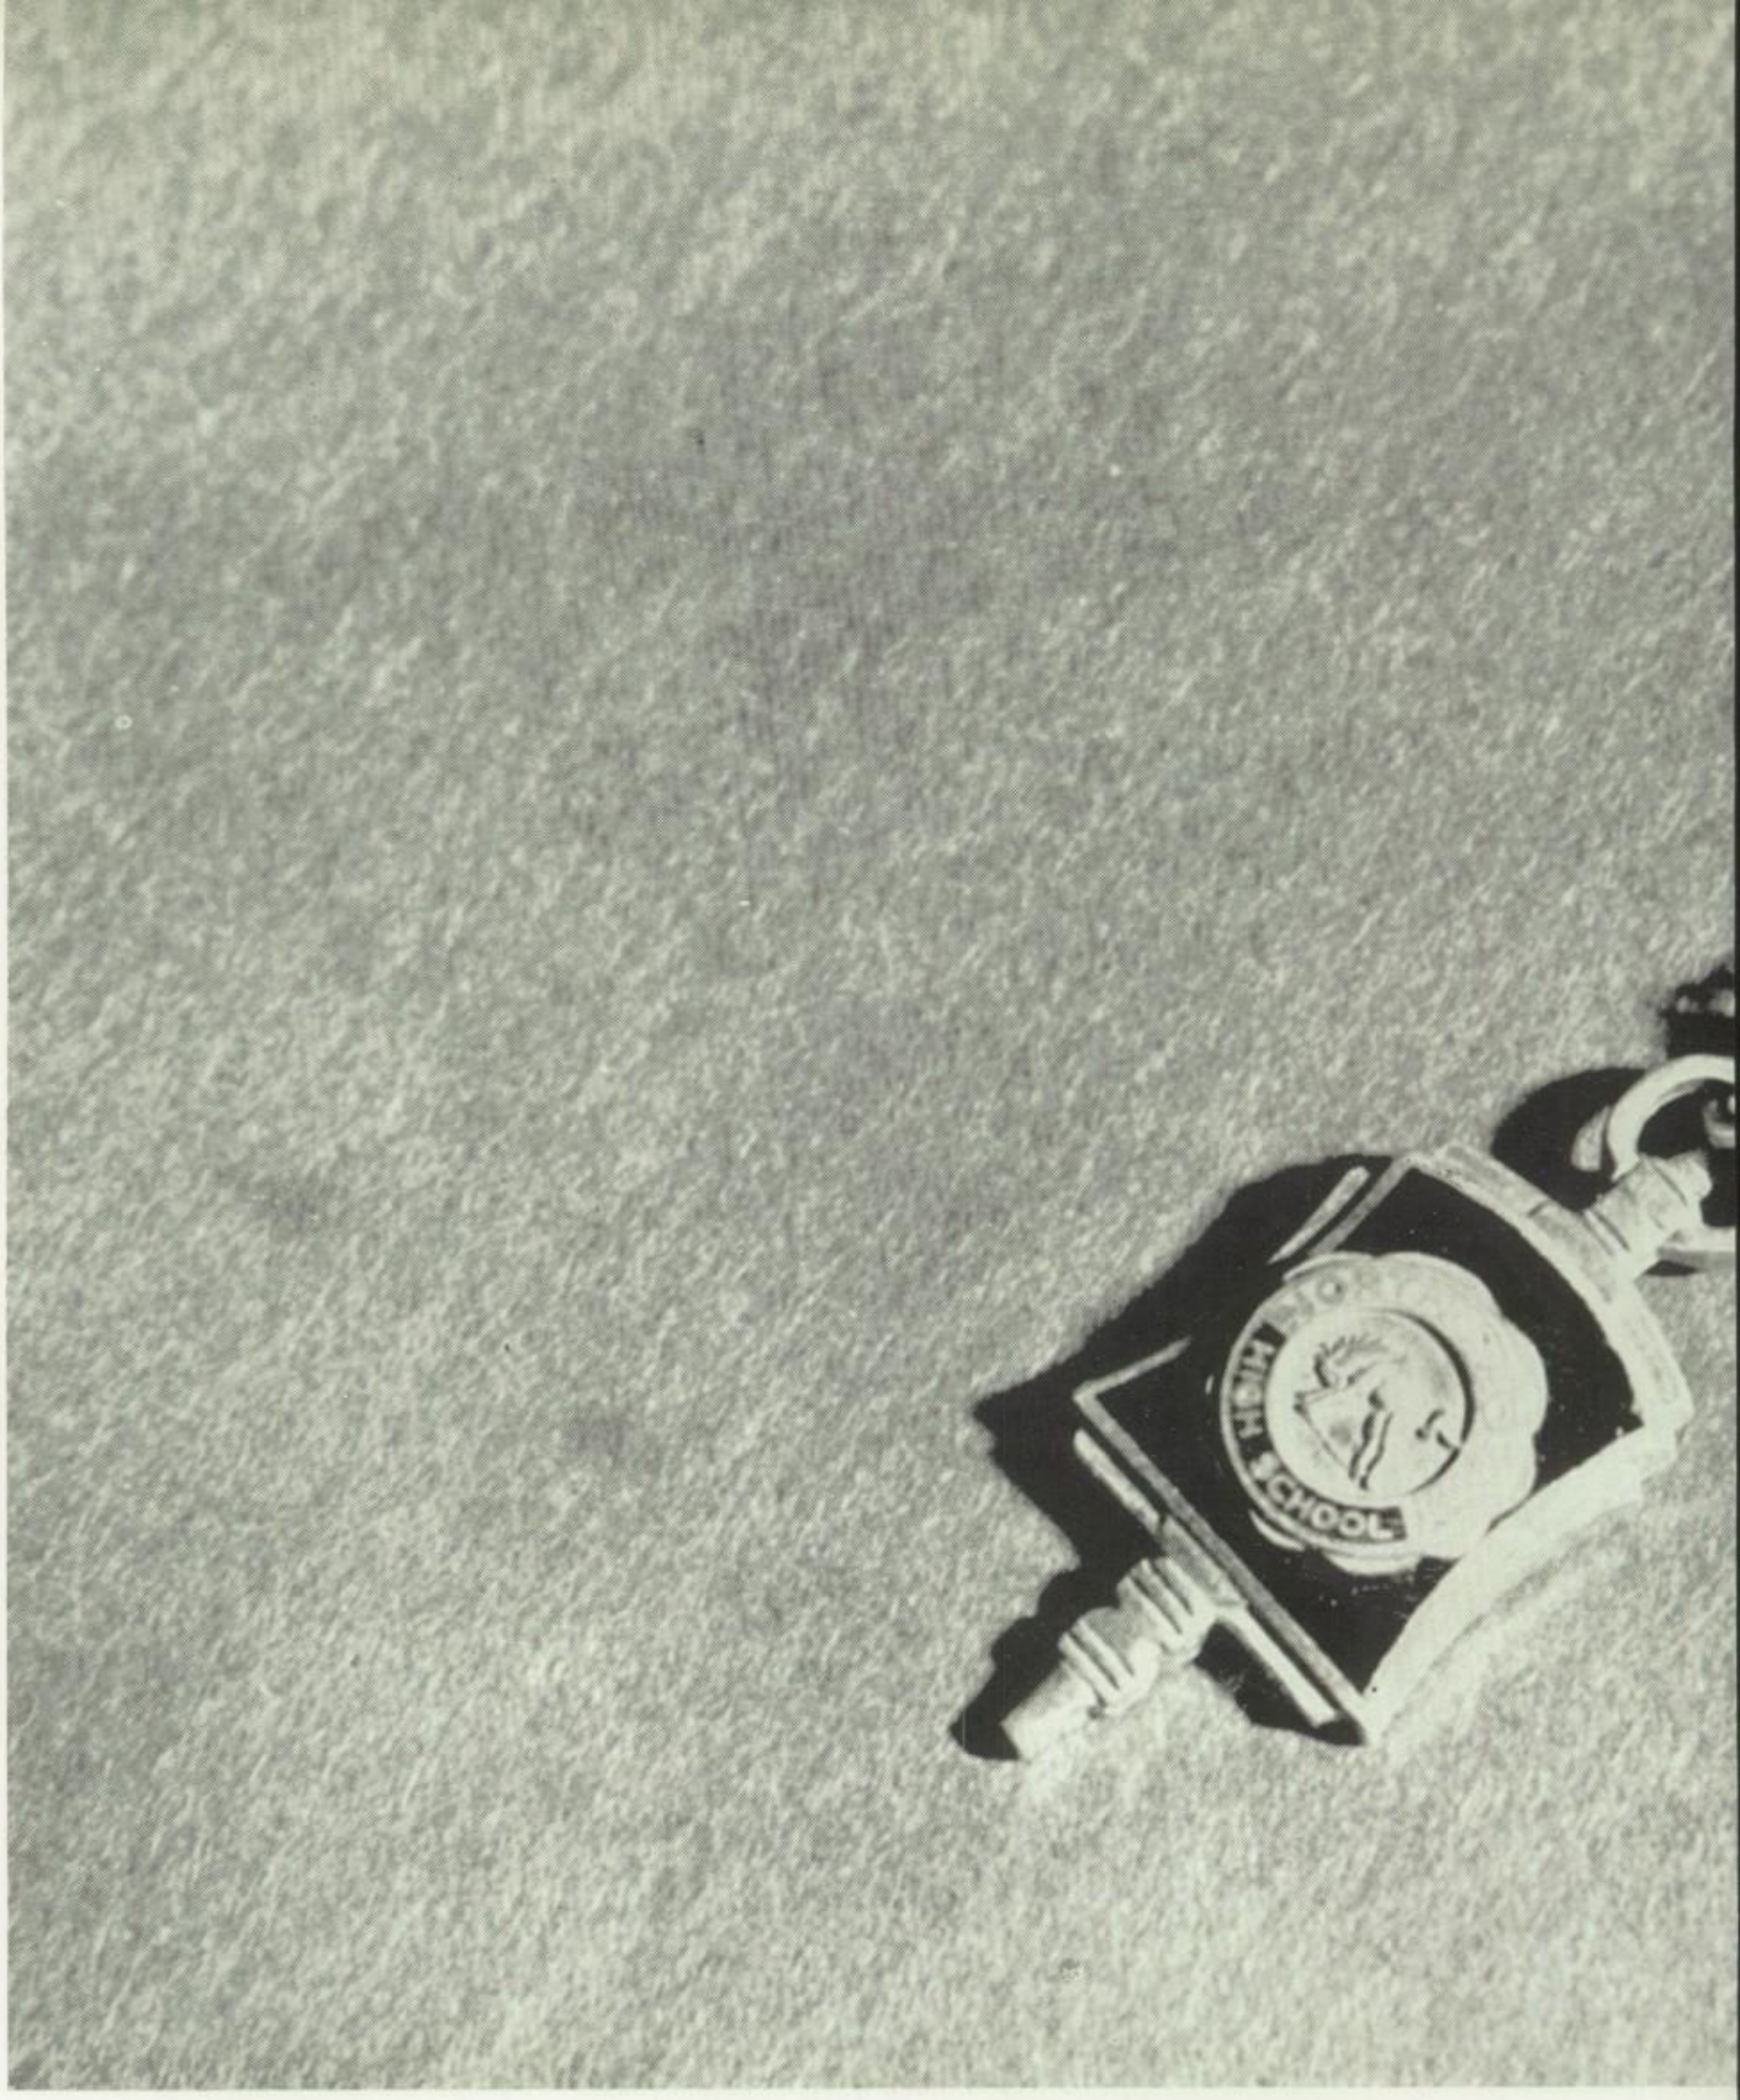
FRESHMEN FROLIC . . . Making friends is the main thought in mind when the Freshmen Mixer is held in the corral at the beginning of the year. This is the first event held in the honor of the Freshmen. It begins the four-year social whirl.



Activities

North's Hoofbeats '54

From the day that school began until the day that the final dummy of the 1954 yearbook was sent to the printer, the staff members have been rushing against the final deadline to finish gathering, cutting, writing and organizing the material in this book.

Every annual is supposed to bring back memories of each student in the school, and the annual staff hopes that it has brought the fondest memories of each North High Mustang in this 1954 issue of the Hoofbeats. The photographers have tried to snap a picture of all the events that have popped up on the campus of North High.

Under the leadership of Susan Lee, editor-in-chief of the 1954 Hoofbeats, the deadlines were met and before you now is the "prize package."

HOOFBEATS SECTION EDITORS . . . John Ingersoll, Zora Turkovic, Carolyn Moores.

Working For The Annual

Students working this year to put out the 1954 Hoofbeats were Susan Lee, editor-in-chief, Phil Citron, business manager, Zora Turkovic, activities section editor, and Carolyn Moores, class section editor.

Students assisting the editor and section editors were Doris Ann Holtgrewe, Marilyn Citron, Frances Geller, Hyla Evans, Mary Margaret Fry, Bob Crawford, Pat Morris and Sharon Proctor.

These staff members have worked hard during the year to make this annual the best ever.

HOOFBEATS STAFF . . . Louie Friedman, Fran Geller, John Gray, Hyla Evans .

Mustang Roundup

Every other week, North High Mustangs learned the latest news about the happenings around North Phoenix by getting their copy of the Mustang Roundup. They weren't surprised when the Mustang Roundup took honors by winning the Arizona Newspaper Association plaque for 1954.

The Roundup was headed by Jan Burroway first semester and Marilyn Lane second semester. The feature editor was Graham Smith, news editor, Jean Whiting, and sports editor, Bob Crawford.

The Mustang Roundup, however, couldn't have been in the hands of the Mustangs if it hadn't been for the reliable reporters and their assigned stories. They are considered the backbone of the paper.

Shutterbugs And Cubs

An annual without a photographer couldn't exist and a newspaper without a picture here and there would soon prove uninteresting for most people. This makes the photographer around here very valuable.

During the year, they have been snapping all of the school events and social activities; but their work didn't stop there. It continued in the dark room where they spent long hours developing pictures that are being viewed in the paper and annual.

This year the photographers were Joe Jordan, Mike Multer, Tom Wilson and Dave Wantz.

The Roundup reporters were busy this year scooping the latest happenings in and around the North Phoenix campus. The Mustangs of North High always were in on the latest news every other week when the Roundup came out.

The Band Plays On . . .

This year's band has gone all out to become one of the jiviest ones ever. Its participation at assemblies, games and the Rodeo Parade, only to mention a few, has given every student of North High something of which to be extremely proud.

Under the direction of Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Davis, it has presented, throughout the year, such music as jazz, popular and marches. This year's success was primarily due to hard practice and preparation on the part of the players, who deserve much credit for their splendid work. Every performance was well done and enthusiastically received by every audience. Our band truly played a great part in keeping up the morale of North High.

BAND OFFICERS . . . Doris Holtgrewe, Cameron Moser, Joel Adler, Bob Hamilton, Richard Ashby.

. . . With Songs Galore

Red weskits, grey skirts and red ties that adorned the A Cappella members added to the gaiety of the musical assemblies put on by the choir. Under the direction of Mr. B. Denton, the A Cappella Choir has made numerous appearances around town singing to the various groups and clubs of Phoenix.

Every year the student body is entertained during the winter season by the A Cappella in the Christmas assembly. The children of the faculty plus Santa Claus add to the festivity of the assembly.

In the spring, clad in formal attire, the choir embarks on another enjoyable program, the Spring Concert, with an orchestra for accompaniment.

Voices In Harmony . . .

The Girls' Glee Club has come to be very well-known in Phoenix this year. They made several appearances on local television shows under the direction of Mr. J. Williams.

In their colorful green jumpers, the girls have presented enjoyable assemblies throughout the year.

The girls joined the A Cappella Choir in putting on gala productions this year. This was accomplished by long hours of practice and training of the voices given by the directors of the Girls' Glee Club and the A Cappella Choir.

. . . With Lilting Strings

Sweet, melodious music is the achievement of the many talented students that form the orchestra at North High. Under the direction of Mr. Lynn Fitzgerald, they have performed at many functions, such as plays and assemblies, to name only a couple. The many hours of practice and cooperation between the director and the students has produced a number of outstanding performances before enthusiastic audiences.

This musical training is a great help to all of the participating students but it is especially useful to those who are gifted and who are considering a musical career.

All students at North High have an excellent reason to be proud of the school's orchestra.

ORCHESTRA OFFICERS . . . Angelo Filigenzi, David Lange, and Bob Lange.

Democracy Begins

Every day during second period, student government goes into action as the Executive Committee assembles to discuss the matters of the student body.

Burton Miller, president of the student body; Robin Moore, vice-president; Carole Glover, secretary; Phyllis Sweitzer, treasurer; Chief Justice of the Honor Court, presidents of the girls' League and Boys' Alliance, presidents of the four classes and the Service Organization are the ex-officio members that make up the Executive Committee.

In addition to these members, a boy and girl from each of the four classes are elected in the student council each semester as representatives.

Justice And Social Mixers

1. The Honor Student is always honorable in his conduct toward others.

2. The Honor Student is always present at classes unless very serious reasons prevent his being there. This is the Honor Code that governs the action of North High Mustangs.

The Honor Court deals with the people who have stepped on the rules of the school. This year the Honor Court had Linda Thompson as Chief Justice.

Planning the social calendar is the job of the Social Committee. Led by Barbara Jo Moran, a faculty party and "Coketail" gathering for new students were undertaken this year. The May Day Play Day, the biggest event, assured fun for all and was held at a local park.

Unselfish Service

Guiding the school's charity projects is the purpose of the Service Organization. Made up of homeroom representatives, projects are carried on in the homerooms and guided by the Service Organization.

Much was accomplished this year through the efforts of the Service Organization. Incubators for local hospitals have been supplied; while projects for needy families made up of food baskets were undertaken during the Christmas and Thanksgiving holidays. These are just a few of the many projects accomplished by the Service Organization.

Books And Food

If any Mustang was asked what his favorite building is, he would probably say the cafeteria where he gets delicious lunches and reasonable prices. The Mustangs thank the Cafeteria Board for all of the wonderful things that they had done this year. They regulate prices on food and keep the cafeteria's profits at a minimum.

The main object of the Bookstore Board is to sell important items to the students at as low cost as possible. The Board is made up of students and teachers. It regulates the commodities and prices of items sold in the Bookstore.

BOOKSTORE BOARD . . . Front Row: Don Smith, Kent Casady, Sharon Van't Kerkhoff, Joe McFarlane, Dorothy Fischer, Mr. C. Burton, Mr. W. Bartels, Mr. H. Moore.

Helping The Wheels Roll

The goal of the Health Committee is to bring our attention to good health.

This year the X-Ray Mobile Unit was at North High under the sponsorship of the Health Committee. A campaign for the frequent use of milk was also undertaken by the Health Committee by passing out cards that entitled each North Mustang to a free pint of milk.

Students and faculty comprise the Health Committee.

Deciding what new athletic equipment to buy and how much money should be alloted is the job of the Athletic Board. The Board, which is made up of students and faculty, also decides other matters that concerns athletics.

G.L. And B.A. In Action!

Numerous activities were undertaken by the members of the Girls' League and Boys' Alliance this year. At the beginning of the year, the girls served as Big Sisters for the new freshmen, showing them around the campus. The girls also helped the Boys' Alliance sponsor the Hello-Day, which proved to be very successful. The annual Girls' League ball, The Blue and Silver, had "Stardust" as its theme.

The latest spring fashions were shown at the Girls' League Spring Fashion Show in the All Girls Asembly. The Mother-Daughter Christmas Tea was held in the cafeteria this year, and the annual Every Girls Dinner had "Rainbow Extravaganza" as its theme.

The Girls' League and Boys' Alliance Friendship Committee showed many new students around North High during the year.

The Boys' Alliance started the year off with Hello-Day as their first event. During the day, Mustangs wore tags with their names shown on it. The day was concluded with a dance in a Hawaiian theme. The Pals' Buffalo Broil was another highlight for the Boys' activities. Their annual Moonlight and Memories Ball had Red Roses as the theme.

Music In Service

The mellowest voices in the Girls' Glee Club were chosen to be the members of the Service Choir. This group has made numerous appearances for different affairs around town and has left the best comment behind them.

Mr. J. Williams directed the Service Choir of the Girls' Glee Club which has appeared at the Girls' League Mother-Daughter Christmas Tea and other school and civic affairs.

The Madrigal singers of the A Cappella Choir is a group made up of the choicest voices of the choir. Under the direction of Mr. B. Denton, the Madrigal singers have appeared at various events along with the A Cappella Choir. This singing ensemble has also received raves in their reviews.

Christian Scholorship

Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs have moved in on North Phoenix High this year. Ambitious students have organized into groups that have grown numerously almost overnight.

Sponsored by the YMCA, the faculty sponsors have been Mr. Coleman, Mr. Stangeland, Mr. Pace, Mr. Ball, Mr. Belluzzi and Mr. Barnes.

Many activities were undertaken by the Hi-Y clubs. They have helped out charities through cake sales, and parties for underprivileged children.

Participating in the Hi-Y Legislature is a big event for the members when they elect senators and representatives along with their proposed bills to be passed. This is held annually at the Phoenix capitol.

Sports

WEST CENTRAL BASKETBALL

TOO LATE . . . An unidentified Mustang is brought down by an equally unidentified Mesa player, but the tackle was too late to prevent a six-pointer for North.

Hot Year Predicted

From the opening of fall practice, it was conceded the Mustangs would prove to be one of the powers of Class A football. Nobody dreamed, however, just how powerful the team would be.

It was dreamed by nobody, that is, until after the opening games of the season. After slapping West 27-0, the Mustangs put the skids on a tough Mesa squad 20-0.

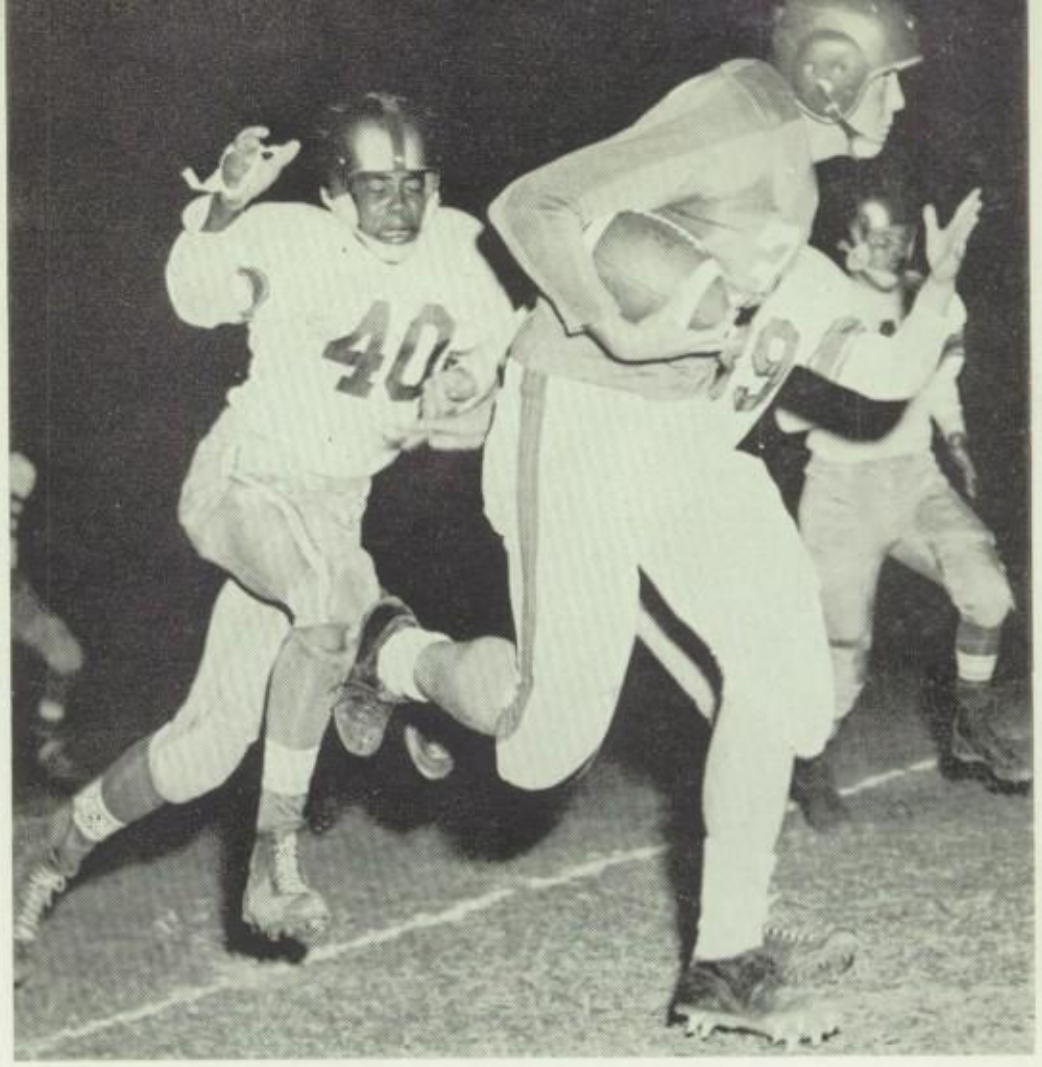
Unbeaten

The real test was the third game when North met champion Tucson. The running didn't materialize in the same manner as before, so Quarterback Clyde Nielson started passing over and through startled defenders. One connected for six points. North tallied again and Tucson went home behind, 14-0.

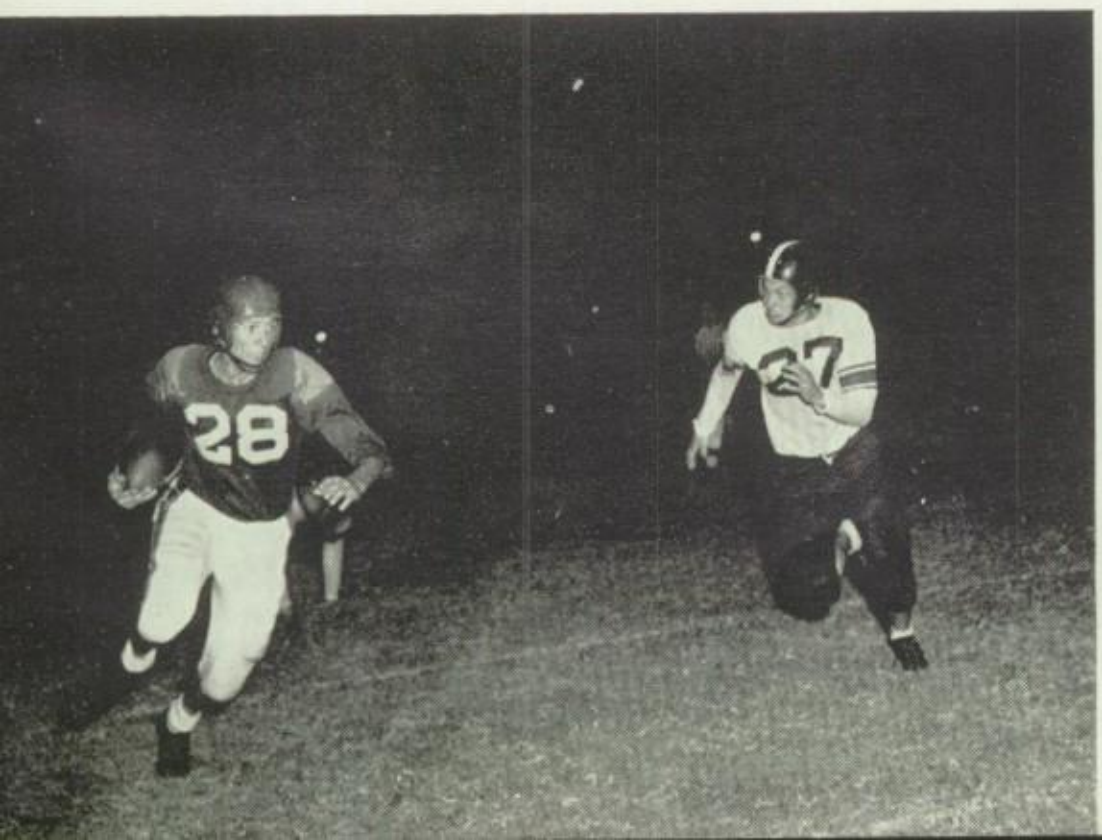
The squad shut out two more foes before the streak cracked at Yuma three games later. Those who went with the team saw Kenny Aycock average 46.6 yards per carry, and saw the team score twice in 90 seconds, but also saw a reserve back score the season's points against North winners, 49-6.

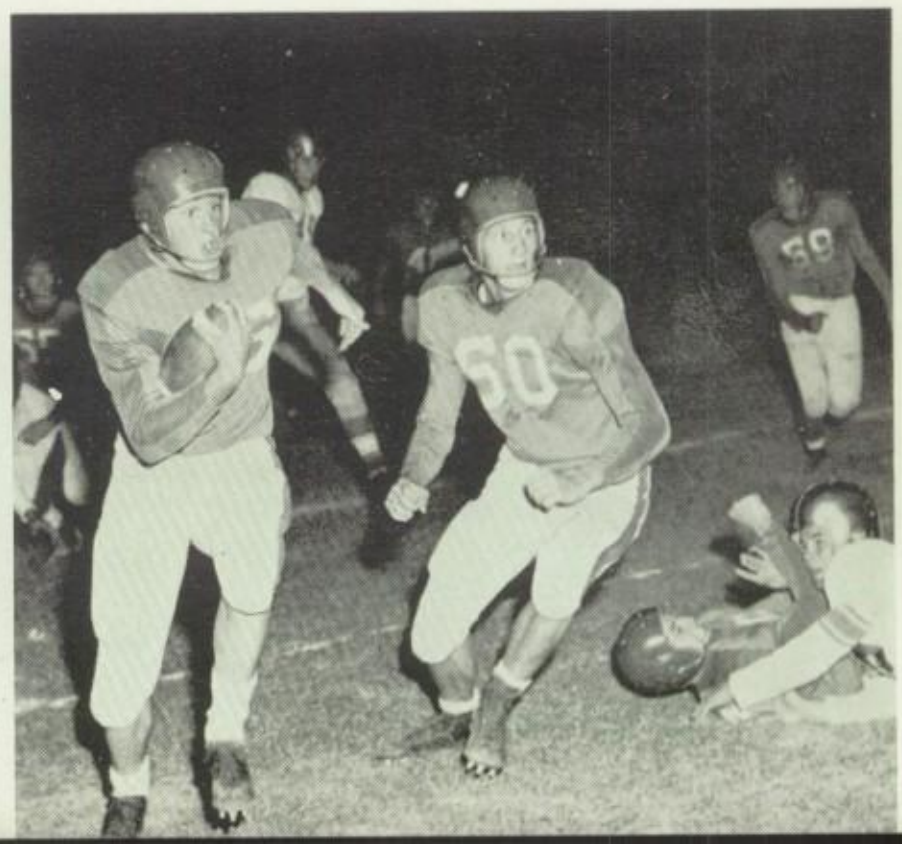
After the bubble burst, the Mustangs blanked two foes copping that championship. Then a repeater with Mesa saw the Jackrabbits stop a perfect season by tieing the Hosses, 6-6.

The Thanksgiving game with Phoenix Union proved a fitting climax for North's greatest season as the Mustangs blanked Union in the traditional closer, 14-0.



TAKE OFF . . . With a Phoenix Tech defender on his heels, Kenny Aycock heads down the field. Aycock made several long gains in this game as the unbeaten Hosses came out on the top of a 50-0 score.





RETURN . . . Left: Lavern Prock returns a punt down the field as a hard-rushing end tries to catch him. Prock was named to the second string of the All-State Team. Right: Kenny Aycock swings to the right as Robin Moore (50) tries to find someone to block out of the play.

GOING DOWN . . . This play ends for Lavern Prock as two Glendale defenders cooperate on the tackle and a second pair come up to watch the action.

All-American

Kenny Aycock wrapped up a productive year of football in which he led the North High Mustangs to an undefeated season and the state Class A championship by being elected to the preparatory school All-America sponsored by Scholastic Magazine.

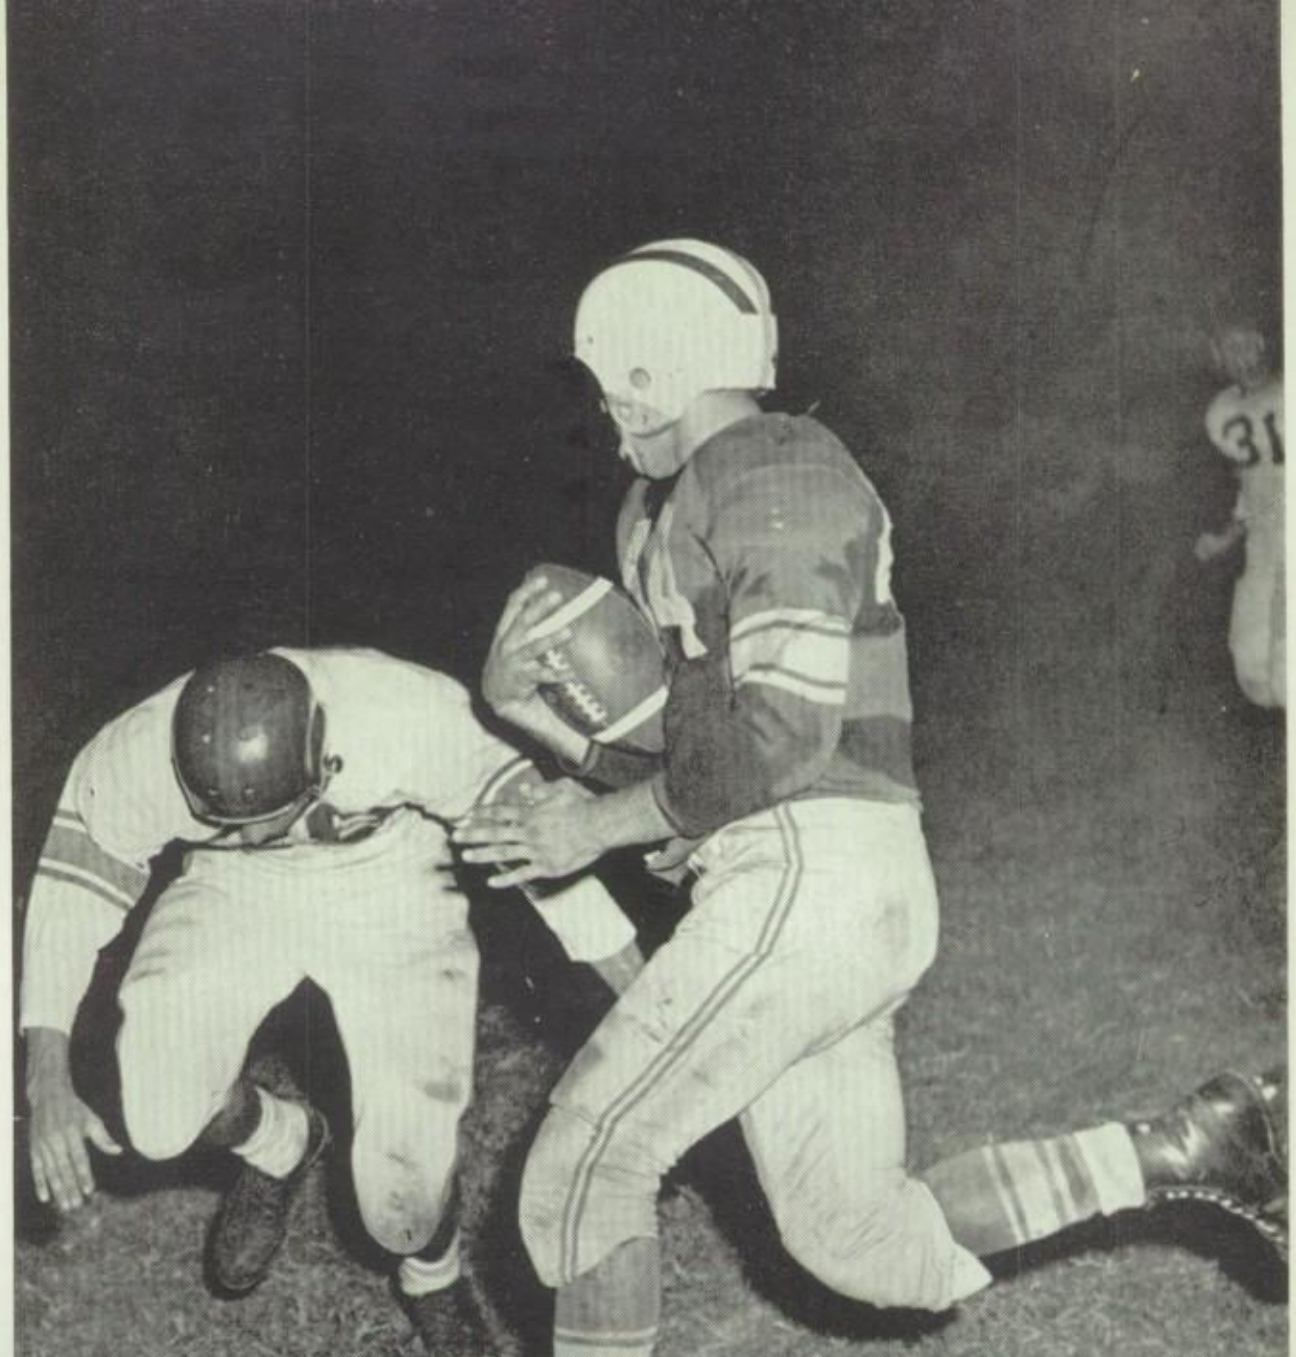
Aycock was chosen along with 76 others, picked as the best high school football players in America. He was named to the tailback position. Under the Scholastic Magazine system, seven players are named to each position.

Soon after the football season closed, Kenny was picked honorary captain of the Class A All-State team. He joined three other North High players on the dream squad.

ALL ALONE . . . Halfback Kenny Aycock finds himself in a position that repeated itself nineteen times during the season as he heads for the goal line with only the referee in a position to stop him.

CRASH! . . . Kenny Aycock again finds himself with the ball but this time there is one difference. A West High tackler is in front of him. Al Tome (33), Jerry Robinson (22), and Robin Moore (50) move in to try to help.

ACTION - REST . . . Right: Lavern Prock dives for the ankles of a Mesa runner as he tries to stop a possible long gain. The Mustangs beat Mesa 20-0 and then tied them later in the season 6-6. Below: Kenny Aycock takes a breather as the powerful North defense goes to work to stop an opponent's attack.



Top Mentor

At the season's close Coach Cecil Coleman was named Arizona Coach of the Year in a vote of the state's coaches and sportswriters. The title was presented to him at the Phoenix Press Club Association's annual Sports Awards Dinner.

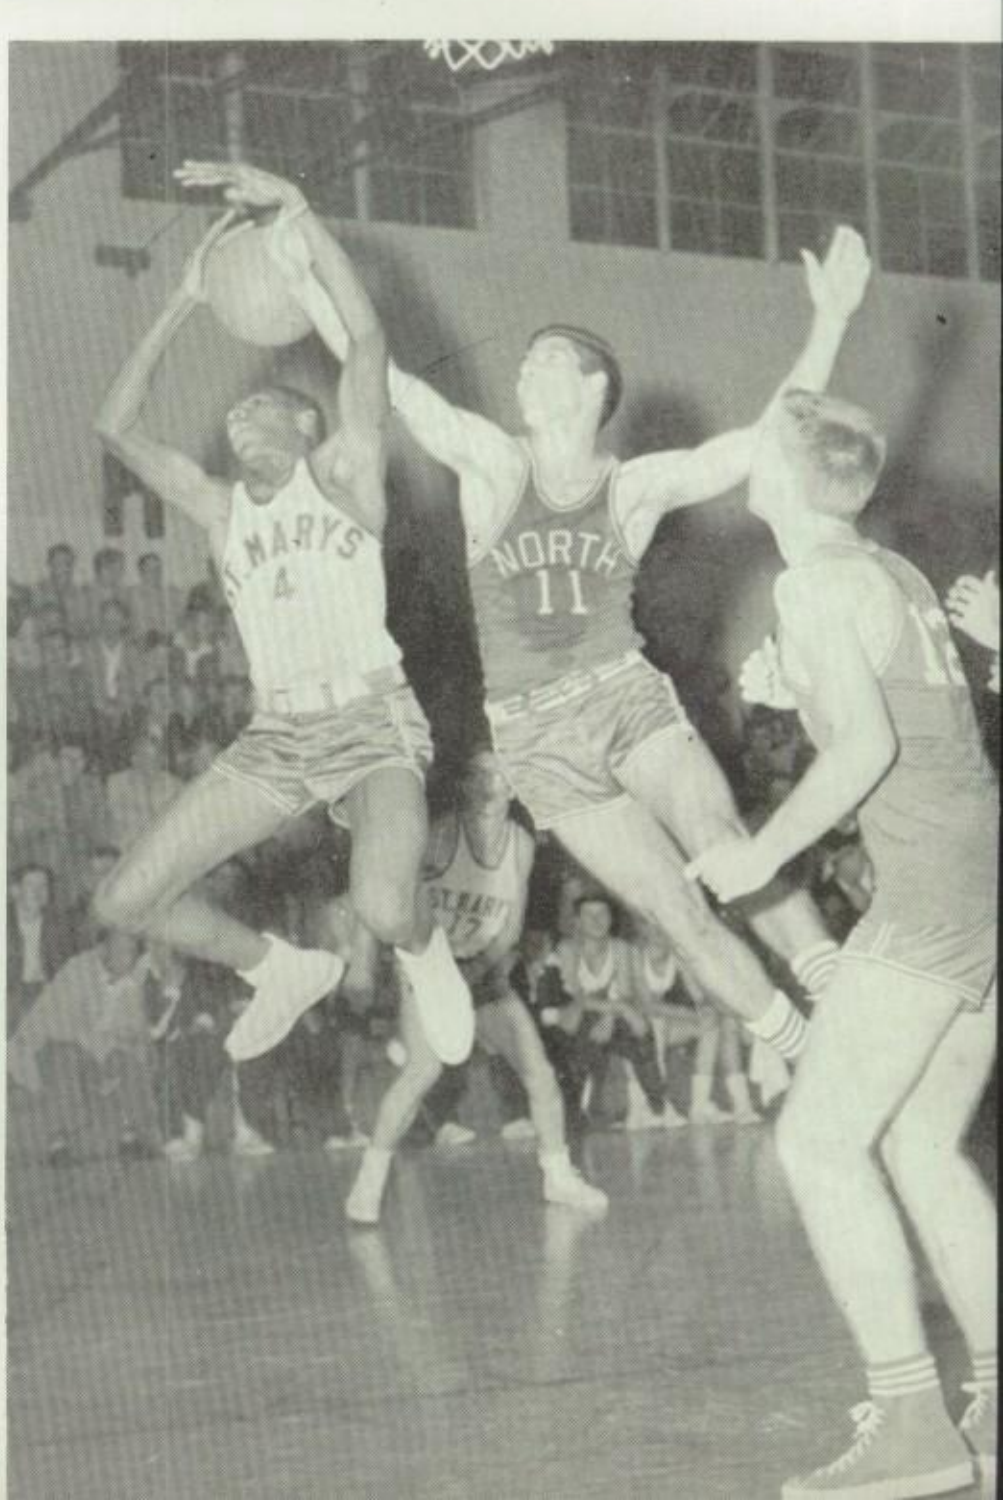
In Action

HOLD IT! . . . Holding on to the ball is Ben Hayward's task in the opening game with the Yuma Criminals. North won the opener, but then went on to lose ten while winning only nine.



Anti-Climax

By finishing in sixth place, the Mustangs earned the right to enter the state tournament held in Tucson.

Favorites were the hosting Tucson Badgers, who had gone through the season with only one defeat; that at the hands of the Amphitheatre Panthers in the finale of the season.

However, the upset bug was still with the Badgers and Phoenix Tech defeated them in the first game of the tournament. North also lost, putting the two squads in the consolation bracket.

Jim Conley, a sophomore up from the jayvees, helped the Hosses into a position to challenge for the consolation championship when he scored 16 points in the Hosses' second game. But the next night, North fell to the mighty Badgers and the tourney was over.

DOWN THE COURT! West High's Sonny Nelson follows North's Dick Kerr down the court in perfect step.

North's Cagers

Even with a brand-new coach and an almost completely new team, the basketball season could only be an anti-climax to football in the minds of North students.

Coach Richard "Jiggs" Hardt, who had led the Scottsdale Beavers to the Class B tournament championship the year before, came to North as coach to try to establish a basketball winner to rank alongside other winning Mustang sports.

After defeating Yuma in the opening game, the Hosses could only manage to show flashes of brilliance during the remainder of the season. Lavern Prock was the steadiest player on the squad and the only player to make an all-state team. He was named center on the second string of all-staters.

J.V. And Frosh Players

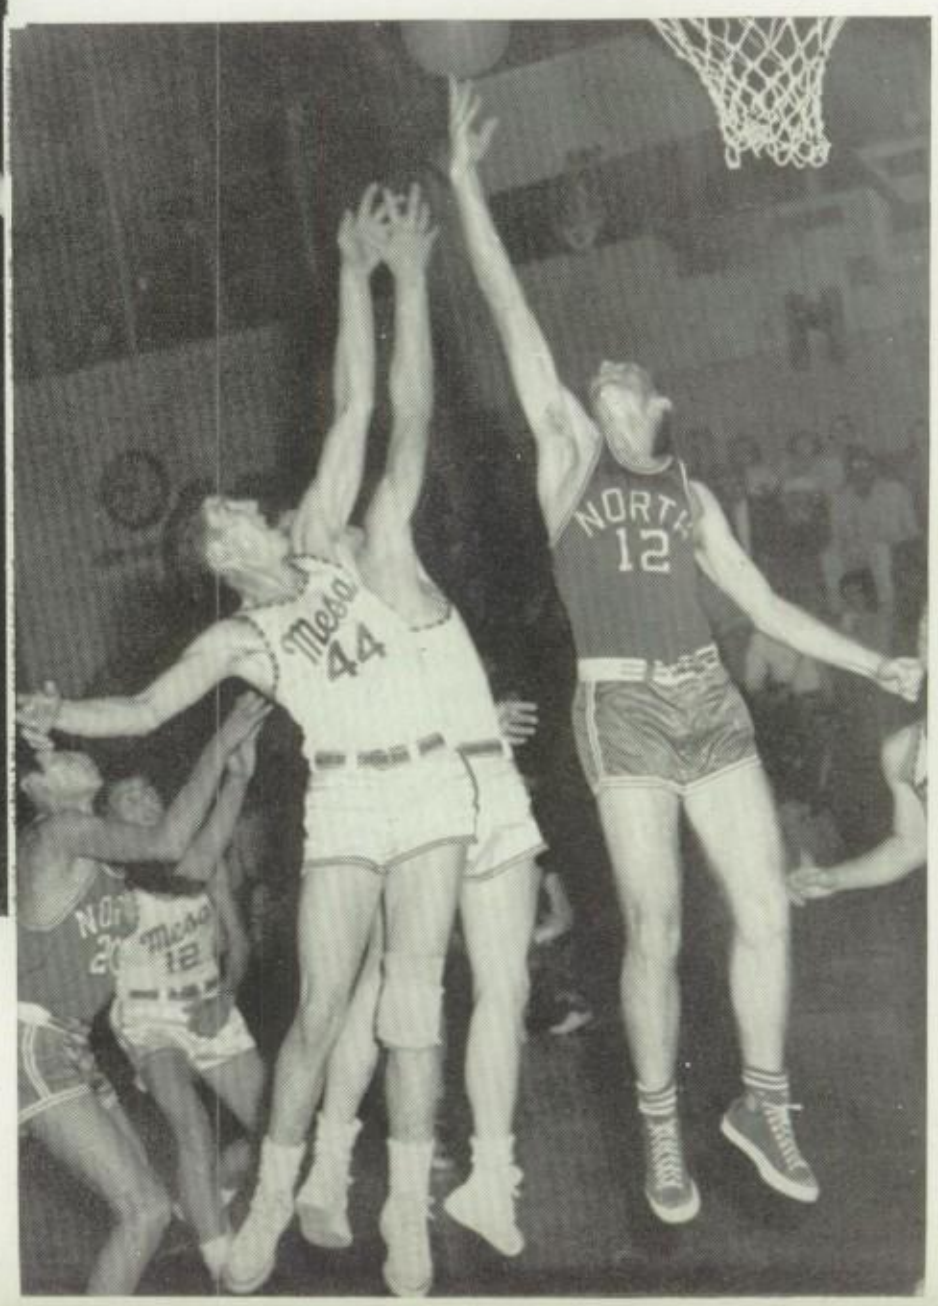
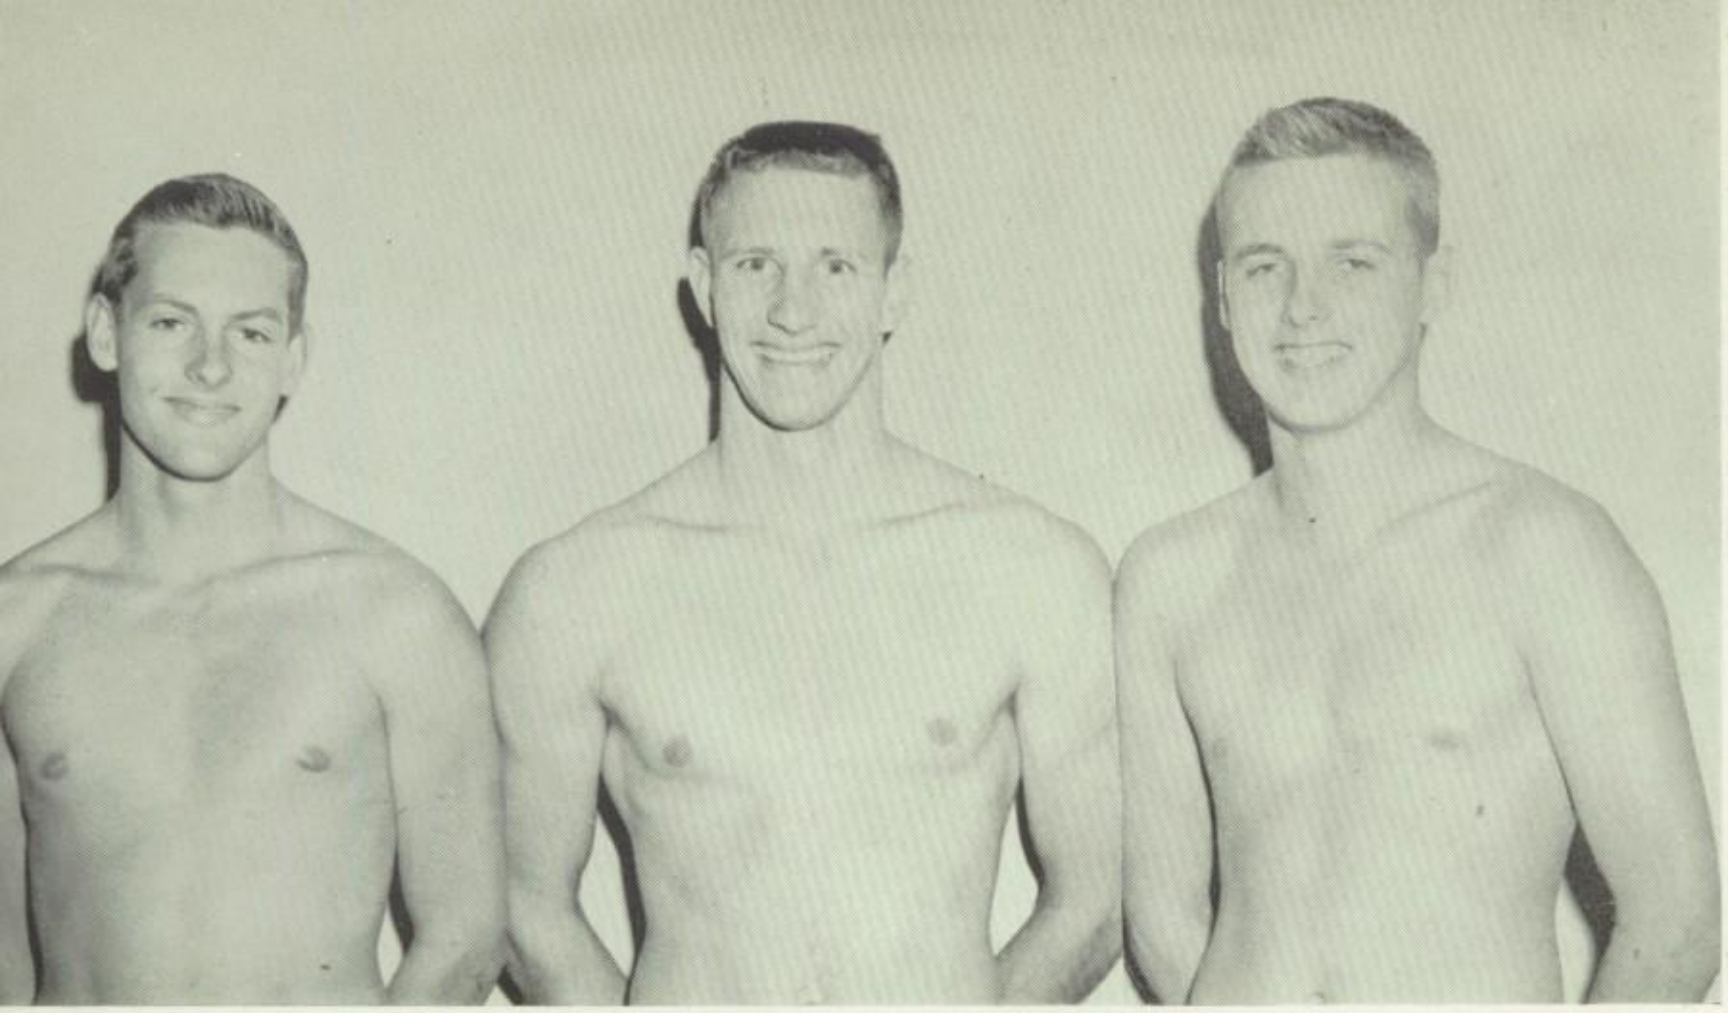
Teamwork

For the first time in three years, the basketballers did not have a player who dominated and upon whom the team was based. Two years ago, it was Frank Craig who was called on to score, and last year, Jed Warner was the star of the team.

Ben Hayward and Pete Homer were the only players to make over twenty points in one game. Lavern Prock, who led in scoring, did no better than 19.

MAKE THAT BASKET . . . Left; North players vie for needed points with the Yuma Criminals. Right: The Mesa Jackrabbits offer competition under the basket.





SWIMMING TEAM . . . Bill Evans, Robin Moore, and Jay McCracken show the physique necessary for aquatic success.

Linksters And Swimmers

Swimming has developed as a leading sport at North High since ace swimmer Robin Moore began breaking records. Robin, Bill Evans, and Jay McCracken compose the official swimming team. This spring they traveled to California to make more records.

Clubs went wild and the balls sailed across the green when the golf team went into action. Trips to California and Tucson occurred quite often. The outcome of these trips always was favorable.

RUNNING HOME . . . Kenny Aycock hits third base and then heads for home and glory. He proved to be one of the leading men on North's 1954 baseball team. Playing in the outfield, Kenny caught flies and snagged those wicked grounders.

On The Base Paths

With the support of their able coaches the varsity (Coach McCloy), the junior varsity (Coach Barnes), and the freshmen team (Coach Schade) brought many thrills to the North diamond.

SHARP DEFENSE . . . Butch Jansen, Mustang third baseman, tags out an unidentified Tucson player. Tucson went on to down North 13-7 for the Hosses' first loss.

Mustangs Play Ball

With eleven wins and five losses our varsity baseball team tied Mesa for second place, lacking one required point in order to place first. Here's hoping North High has a team just as good next year.

Baseball Colts

The twenty-one man frosh squad played behind the chucking of four pitchers including Charles Smith, Fred Lyddon, Bob Duvall, and John Drumm.

Next year the junior varsity will be filling the vacancies on the varsity. Here's wishing them luck.

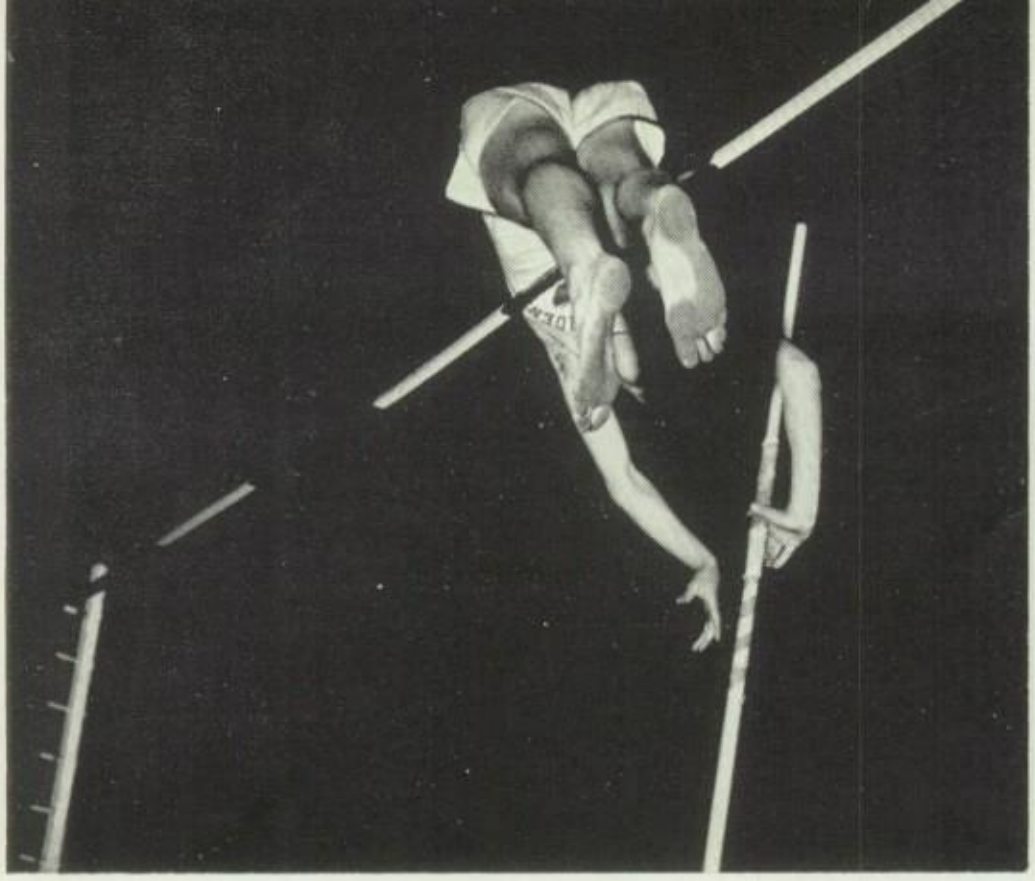
A new sport came crashing through the campus gates at North High this year. The North High Boxing Tournament featured such stars as Les Tanno, Jim Merrit Bob Watson, and Dick Sumner. Champions, unanimous decisions, clean cut blows, and "a left and a right" became the usual jargon.

Trampolin held the spectators' interest especially when Dick Mathieson and David Carey were on and off the mat.



OVER THE POLE AND THROUGH THE TAPE . . . Left: bottoms up and over we go.. Right; North's relay man brings home the baton.

Track Triumphs . . .

North's trackmen walked away with the Mesa Four-Way Invitational Track and Field Meet at Mesa. Maintaining this form in pole vaulting, broadjumping, dashes and hurdles kept the team busy.

. . . Season Sensational

GIRLS VARSITY TENNIS . . .
Second Row: Miss C. Wilkinson, Ardys Grammar, Judy Price, Susan Tuthill, Bonnie Miller.

Lady Racqueteers

Led by third year varsity Ace Connie Kisner, North High Squad has had a very successful season in defeating Buckeye, Glendale, Mesa, Phoenix Union, Tucson, and Yuma squads. Squad members were quarterfinalists in singles and doubles play in the Valley Tournament. Connie Kisner and Helen Harrison were finalists in the Junior Girls' Doubles of the Arizona Closed State Tournament, and made a fine showing in the Arizona Open State Tournament.

GIRLS' J.V. TENNIS . . .
First Row: Sharon Mickle, Pamela Gannarelli, Evelyn Baroody, Gale Radcliffe.
Second Row: Barbara Miller, Jo Wilson, Eva Grammar, Jan Cox, Yvonne Knight, Mrs. C. Wilkinson.

Carey's Court Stars

BOUNCING BOY . . . Dickie Mathieson performs his well known feats on the trampolin while crowd watches.

Dancing And Cheering

School spirit this year was supplied by the cheerleaders and pompon girls, who were chosen last year. The cheerleaders came up with new cheers, new uniforms, and new girls. The pomponers could be depended upon for an interesting act.

Sports-Minded

The All-Stars of the Girls' Athletic Association are girls who have been recognized for excellence in participation in volleyball, speedball, softball, and basketball. Tryouts for each sport are held at the end of the regular season for that sport.

This recognition is an incentive which inspires the girls to put forth their best efforts in the sports, increasing the value in healthful living and enjoyable recreation which the sports provide.

Fun And Friendship

Girls' Athletic Association members are girls who are interested in more sports than they can receive in one period of physical education each day. The girls meet other girls with similiar interests and make friendships that last through their entire high school life. Besides the regular sports of softball, volleyball, speedball, and basketball there are picnics and a spring camp at Prescott.

Co-Eds Play Ball

The typical girl belonging to the Girls' Athletic Association is one of sound morals who is inspired by the outdoors. She is a youth who maintains excellent health in both mind and body by participating in sports of all types. Her code is founded on good sportsmanship and to follow this she endeavors. It is a girl such as this that will lead the women of tomorrow in their struggle for existence.

BATTER UP . . . Miss Breneman's second period Physical Education Class practice for intermural competition.

Only time will tell what's ahead for each of you: maybe fame . . . or fortune . . . or, maybe both. In any case, the real measure of success is not fame or fortune; it's freedom. Freedom to think, freedom to speak, and freedom to act. Your biggest responsibility is the protection of those freedoms for yourself and for others. What's ahead depends on your efforts. Fame and fortune have little value without freedom, so we must all be alert to combat any force that attempts to take our freedom from us.
